3. PRICES AND PAYMENT PROCEDURE

- 3.1. Fees for the Services and Software are given in Appendix 2 hereto.
- 3.2. For EDI Participants who are clearing participants in the relevant market of the Moscow Exchange, the EDI Participant's obligations to pay for the services of the EDI System Provider, including remuneration for using the Software, are fulfilled in the form defined by the clearing rules of the CCP NCC.
- 3.3. If it is not possible to collect remuneration for Services in the manner provided for in clause 3.2. these Terms and Conditions, the EDI System Provider sends the EDI Participant an invoice in accordance with clause 3.4, clause 3.5 of these Terms and Conditions. In this case, the procedure for sending primary accounting documents provided for in paragraph 2.2.4. and 2.2.5 of these Terms and Conditions does not change depending on the payment form used by the Parties.
- 3.4. Services specified as items 1-2 in Appendix 2 hereto, are paid in RUB via bank transfer within five (5) business days after an EDI Participant receives an invoice. The payment is made to the EDI System Provider's transaction account. The Parties may establish other payment procedure in the Agreement.
- 3.5. The Subscription (see item 3, Appendix 2 hereto) is paid by EDI Participants being trading and/or clearing members, by the twentieth (20) day of the invoice month by transferring funds to the EDI System Provider's transaction account. The EDI System Provider issues the invoices by the tenth (10) day of the month following the chargeable month.

If an EDI Participant has not received an invoice within the established timeframe, it must contact the EDI System Provider regarding the invoice's duplicate by the fifteenth (15) day of the invoice month (however, the payment timeframe remains unchanged). An incomplete month is included in the payment for the first complete month, and the payment for such month remains unchanged.

- 3.6. The EDI Participant may assign its payment liability to a third party. The payment received from the third party confirms the EDI Participant's assignment of the payment liability to the third party and the consent of the EDI Participant and the third party to this payment method. In this case, the EDI Participant and the third party shall not refer to the absence of the third party's will and/or authority to pay for the Services.

- 3.7. If the services are paid by a third party, the Agreement shall include the following information: the payer's full name, registration number and place of business.
- 3.8. With respect to the EDI Participant that meet the conditions of the Procedure for providing the User with Package offers for ITS Services and the Services of the EDI System Provider, remuneration for the use of Service Packages (tariff plans) established by Appendix No.1 to the Procedure for providing the User with Package offers for ITS Services and the Services of the EDI System Provider is applied. The choice of the tariff for the corresponding Package of services is carried out by submitting an Application by the EDI Participant for technological and information services of Moscow Exchange at special tariffs (hereinafter referred to as the "Application for a Package of Services") and other applications provided for by the Terms. The application form for the Package of Services is available on the website of Moscow Exchange on the Internet at: <http://moex.com/a1819>. If EDI Participant submits an Application for a Package of services, the terms of the Procedure for providing the User with Package Offers for ITS Services and the Services of the EDI System Provider in terms of the Services of the EDI System Provider included in the Service Packages apply to the EDI Participant.

4. LICENSE TRANSFER; PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 4.1. The EDI System Provider undertakes to provide an EDI Participant with the ordinary (non-exclusive) license to use Software within the time frame specified in clause 1.3 hereof. The EDI System Provider and the EDI Participant execute and sign a document to certify the Software license transfer.
- 4.2. The EDI System Provider makes Software and user manuals available by placing appropriate installation package on its website at <http://moex.com>.
- 4.3. Unless otherwise stated in the Agreement, services specified as items 1-2 in Appendix 2 hereto are provided during no more than three (3) business days after an EDI Participant furnished all necessary documents specified in clause 2, Regulations of the EDI Certification Authority. The Subscription-related services are provided during the Agreement's period.
- 4.4. The certificates specified in clauses 2.2.4 and 2.2.5 hereof, are given to an EDI Participant in accordance with requirements and time frames set out in the effective Russian legislation.
- 4.5. An EDI Participant must send a signed copy of the certificate or a reasonable objection to sign it within seven (7) business days after receiving it.
- 4.6. If an EDI Participant fails to send a signed copy of the certificate or a reasonable objection to sign it within the time frames established in clause 4.5 hereof, relevant Services are considered to have been approved by the EDI Participant and the Software license is considered to have been provided in full, without any claims or objections declared.
- 4.7. In relation to the EDI Participant receiving the Services of the EDI System Provider within the framework of the Package of Services, the terms of acceptance and transfer of the EDI System Provider Services are determined by the Procedure for providing the User with Package Offers for ITS Services and the Services of the EDI System Provider.

5. FORCE MAJEURE

- 5.1. The Parties are not liable for failure to perform their obligations, in full or in part, under the Agreement if such failure is due to a force majeure event.
- 5.2. Force majeure events are circumstances occurring after the Agreement date as a result of emergency situation which could not have been foreseen or reasonably prevented by the Party. Force majeure existence and its start and end must be confirmed by a document issued by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Russian Federation or any other competent organisation.
- 5.3. If force majeure event stipulated in Clause 5.2 hereof occurs, term for the Party to perform its liabilities under the Agreement is to be extended for the period of such event and its effects. Any Party wishing to be exempted from any responsibility arising due to a force majeure event stipulated in Clause 5.2 hereof, must send a written notice to other Party on the beginning, expected period and end time of such event, and, in any case, this notice must be sent no later than three (3) business days after the event begins. In case of failure to fulfill this obligation, the breaching Party shall compensate the other Party for the losses caused by this.
- 5.4. Where a force majeure event stipulated in Clause 5.2 hereof and its effects continue to take place for more than one month or where at the beginning of a force majeure event, there are evidences that the event and its effects would take place for more than this period, the Parties shall negotiate as soon as possible to find alternative reasonable ways to fulfil the terms of the Agreement

6. RESPONSIBILITY. GUARANTEES AND REPRESENTATIONS

- 6.1. In the event a Party fails to perform its obligations under the Agreement, it is liable in accordance with the effective Russian legislation.
- 6.2. An EDI Participant guarantees that the Agreement and Appendices thereto are signed by an authorised person and that copies of documents provided are true and do not contain corrections, errors and other discrepancies misrepresenting the content of such original documents.
- 6.3. If the payment of the Services is late for more than 30 (thirty) calendar days, the EDI System Provider may decide to suspend electronic data interchange for the EDI Participant by blocking its access to the Internet services and specialised email services.
Access to the Internet services and specialised email services is resumed for the EDI Participant on the second day after the late payment is credited to the EDI System Provider's account.
- 6.4. Such legal entity is responsible for signing digital documents by using the digital signature key with the key certificate held by the chief executive officer of the legal entity/individual entrepreneur or other authorised person representing the EDI Participant.

7. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 7.1. Documents and information given by the Parties to each other under the Agreement shall not be passed to any third parties without the written consent of the other Party during the agreement period and for three (3) years after its termination, except cases provided for in the Russian law and the Terms.

- 7.2. If the documents submitted to EDI Certification Authority for the purposes of applicant identification, as well as for the purposes of performance of other functions, powers and duties imposed on the EDI Provider under the legislation of the Russian Federation contain personal data of individuals, the processing of that data is performed by the EDI Provider without obtaining consent from the personal data subject in accordance with the legislation on personal data.

The EDI Participant shall certify that it has obtained the necessary written consent of the individuals to the processing of their personal data by Moscow Exchange in respect of other documents and information submitted to the EDI Certification Authority, which may contain personal data on those individuals.

The EDI Participant undertakes to provide the EDI Provider, upon first request, with consent to process personal data received from the said personal data subjects, providing for processing of personal data in order for Moscow Exchange to exercise any rights and obligations related to performance of the agreement on participation in the electronic document management system. The EDI participant confirms that it has provided subjects of personal data with the information stipulated by Clause 3 of Article 18 of the Federal Law No. 152-FZ "On Personal Data " dated 27 July 2006.

8. THE TERM OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS, AND THE AGREEMENT

- 8.1. The Agreement takes effect from signing by authorised representatives of the Parties, and will continue for one (1) calendar year, and then for every next calendar year unless either Party notifies the other of termination at least fifteen (15) business days prior the Agreement expiry date. The Parties may establish other term in the Agreement.

When a non-resident participates in a legal relationship, the rights and obligations of the EDI System Provider and a non-resident EDI Participant stipulated by the Terms and Conditions, including in terms of the agreement on the use of the non-qualified electronic signature, arise from the moment the EDI System Provider receives a scanned copy of the Contract, application and other documents necessary for the creation of the ESVKC; in this case, the EDI System Provider is obliged to send the originals of the Contract and other documents, as well as to ensure their delivery to the EDI System Provider no later than 30 calendar days from the date of providing copies. In the absence of the original of the Contract after the specified period, the Contract terminates.

- 8.2. The EDI System Provider is only entitled to amend these Terms and Conditions by endorsing relevant amendments. New versions of these Terms and Conditions and information about the coming into force thereof are published on the EDI System Provider's website at <http://moex.com>, as well as are sent by the EDI System Provider to EDI Participants in accordance with the clause 1, article 6 of the EDI Rules.
- 8.3. The EDI System Provider publishes a new version of these Terms and Conditions as well as sends information about the coming into force thereof to EDI Participants at least ten (10) calendar days before the new version comes into force.
- 8.4. If an EDI Participant disagrees with new Terms and Conditions, it may withdraw from the Agreement by giving a five (5) calendar days' notice to the EDI System Provider.

- 8.5. Either Party is entitled to withdraw from the Agreement by giving a fifteen (15) business days' notice to the other.
- 8.6. If admission to trading and/or clearing services (the Admission) has been cancelled for an EDI Participant on all MOEX markets, such EDI Participant is not liable to pay for the services related to electronic data interchange with the aid of digital signature (see item 3 of Appendix 2 hereto) starting from the next calendar day after the cancellation day.
In this case, the payment for the services related to electronic data interchange with the aid of digital signature (see item 3, Appendix 2 hereto) for the month in which the Admission was discontinued is added to the previous month's payment. Such previous month's payment remains unchanged.
Suspension the Admission doesn't exempt EDI Participants from the payment for the services related to electronic data interchange with the aid of digital signature (see item 3, Appendix 2 hereto).
- 8.7. The EDI System Provider may send the notice specified in clause 8.5 hereof in the manner described in clause 2.1 hereof. An EDI Participant is considered to be duly informed from the date of sending the notice.
- 8.8. The Parties will not be released from their obligations having arisen during the period of the Agreement after the Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason.
- 8.9. The termination of the Agreement does not affect the validity and procedures set put in documents signed by the digital signature of either Party before the termination date.

9. MISCELLANEOUS

- 9.1. An EDI Participant has been notified about an opportunity set out in the EDI Rules to execute/amend/terminate contracts and to exchange other electronic documents not only between the EDI System Provider and the EDI Participant, but also between EDI Participants.
- 9.2. By signing the Agreement, an EDI Participant agrees to exchange electronic documents including Client Documents.
- 9.3. EDI Participants agree to use digital signatures in accordance with the EDI Rules to exchange electronic documents including to execute contracts mentioned in clause 9.2 hereof, with any entities having signed an agreement for participating in EDI with the EDI System Provider. To meet Clause 2, Article 160 and Clause 2 Article 184 of the Russian Civil Code, an EDI Participant, by accessing these Terms and Conditions and signing a pertinent Agreement, authorises the EDI System Provider to agree the use of digital signature in executing/changing/terminating contracts and in exchanging other electronic documents with other EDI Participant.
- 9.4. The Parties adhere to the Russian law with regard to any issues not covered by these Terms and Conditions and the Agreement.
- 9.5. The Parties endeavour to resolve any disputes regarding the Agreement by way of negotiations within thirty (30) days. Otherwise, a dispute is to be referred to the Moscow Arbitration Court.
- 9.6. Rights and obligations of either Party under the Agreement shall not be assigned to any third parties without written consent from the other Party.

- 9.7. All amendments and supplements to the Agreement are to be made in writing and signed by authorised persons unless otherwise set out in the Terms and Conditions.
- 9.8. In case of changes to the Parties' addresses and bank details including emails, the Parties must notify each other thereof no later than three (3) business days after the changes take place.
- 9.9. Notices and messages send by the Parties to each other within the framework of these Terms and Conditions as well as the Agreement including those ones that send to notify of the change of address and bank details or any amendment to the Terms and Conditions shall be made in writing. A notice is considered as duly made if has been send in one of the following ways:
- By registered mail with return receipt requested;
 - By courier with delivery confirmation;
 - via the electronic data interchange system as an electronic message or document;
 - By email;
 - via the Customer Online Account as an electronic message or document;
 - by publishing the notice on the EDI System Provider's website;
 - in any other manner as agreed by the Parties.
- 9.10. The Parties shall have the right to exchange primary accounting documents electronically using an enhanced qualified electronic signature through the Electronic Document Management Operator SKB Kontur (hereinafter the "EDI Operator") via the electronic document management system Diadoc. In case an EDI Participant agrees to use electronic document management with the involvement of the EDI Operator in the exchange of primary accounting documents, it shall send a letter in any form (paper or electronic) signed by an authorized person confirming the transition to electronic means of communication.
- 9.11. By concluding the Contract, the EDI Participant gives consent to the EDI System Provider to provide the companies of the Moscow Exchange Group (CCP NCC, and (or) NSD, and (or) NAMEX) documents and information received from the EDI Participant in accordance with the EDI Rules. Documents and information can be provided only if there is a valid contract of the EDI Participant with the relevant company of the Moscow Exchange Group in the amount necessary for such a company to provide services to the EDI Participant and comply with the requirements of the legislation of the Russian Federation.
- 9.12. The contract, applications, powers of attorney and other documents provided under the EDI Rules are drawn up in Russian. At the request of the EDI Participant who is a non-resident of the Russian Federation, the contract and statements can be additionally translated into English or another language. When interpreting the terms of the documents, the Russian-language version has priority.

List of Services.
Fees for EDI System Provider's services

No.	Service	Fee (RUB excl. VAT ⁵)
1.	Creating an electronic signature key certificate	3,800
2.	Granting the right to use electronic signature tools for 1 year	1,500
3.	Replacing an existing electronic signature key certificate to introduce changes ²	1,500
4.	Servicing trading and/or clearing members in electronic data interchange with the aid of digital signatures ³	2,300 Monthly ⁴

² If any changes should be introduced into an existing electronic signature key certificate, a new certificate is created to replace the existing one. The expiration date of the electronic signature key for the new certificate is set equal to the expiration date of the electronic signature key for the current certificate. In this case, the replaced certificate is cancelled.

³ This includes provision of the infrastructure and services to facilitate electronic data interchange with the aid of electronic signature between trading and/or clearing members and market operators and the clearing house, i.e.:

- Giving access to internet services and specialised email services used to facilitate electronic data interchange for trading and/or clearing members;
- Maintaining operational capability (i.e. configuration, support, back-up, monitoring and information security) of the EDI System Provider's technical infrastructure providing electronic data interchange with trading and/or clearing members;
- Providing centralised cryptographic processing of data within the EDI System in the process of electronic data interchange with trading and/or clearing members;
- Certifying the authenticity of the electronic signature at the request of a trading and/or clearing member.

⁴ Payment for an incomplete month is added to the payment for the first chargeable month. In this case, the payment for the first chargeable month remains unchanged. If an EDI Participant's Admission has been discontinued, the payment for services provided to trading and/or clearing members in electronic data interchange with the aid of digital signature (see item 3, Appendix 2 hereto) for the month in which the Admission was discontinued is added to the payment for the previous chargeable month. Such previous month's payment remains unchanged.

From 01.06.2024 to 31.12.2024, a marketing program is in effect, under which the subscription fee for the service "Servicing trading and/or clearing members in electronic data interchange with the aid of digital signatures" is not charged in the absence of valid electronic signature keys from the EDI Participants as of the last day of the billing month for which the calculation is made, including for the purposes of calculations for June 2024 – in the absence of valid electronic signature keys from the EDI Participants as of 28.06.2024.

⁵ VAT is not levied on the basis of subparagraph 12.2 of paragraph 2 of Article 149 of Part Two of the Tax Code of the Russian Federation, item 9 of the List approved by Government Decree No. 761 of 31.08.2013.

List of Software ¹

No.	Software. Special conditions of use
1.	Cryptographic information protection facility "Cryptographic service provider "Validata CSP" (CIPF "Validata CSP") Note: given to EDI Participants only for use on the territory of the Russian Federation
2.	Hardware and software suite "Validata Client" Note: it is given to EDI Participants only for use on the territory of the Russian Federation
3.	Hardware and software suite "Client of the MOEX EDI Sub-System Certification Authority"
4.	Software package "Validata Client L" ("Validata Client L") Note: it is given to EDI Participants only for use on the territory of the Russian Federation ²

- for ESVKC with the type of Cryptographic Tools "GOST" (certified Cryptographic Tools) EDI participant is granted the right to use the "Validata CSP", "Validata Client" and the "Validata Client L";
- for ESVKC with the type of Cryptographic Tools "RSA" (non-certified Cryptographic Tools) EDI participant is granted the right to use the "Client of the MOEX EDI Sub-System Certification Authority".

² From the moment of entry into force of this edition of the EDI Terms, the "Validata Client L" is provided to the EDI Participant both when creating a new electronic signature key certificate and in the case of using the current electronic signature key certificate - in addition to the software received by the EDI Participant when creating the electronic signature key certificate; the right to use the "Validata Client L" is valid until the expiration of the corresponding the electronic signature key.
