Article 6. Grounds for Listing of Securities. Terms and Conditions of Inclusion in the List (Listing)

6.1. Securities may be included in Level One or Level Two:

– if all of the requirements (applicable to the respective kind/type/category of security and/or the Entity) set out in Article 5 of these Rules;

– the requirements for Level One or Two listing of securities are set out in Annex 2 to these Rules, as well as – the terms and conditions set out in this Article and Article 10 below, are complied with.

6.2. Securities may be included in Level Three if all of the requirements are complied with:

– requirements (applicable to the respective kind/type/category of security and/or the Entity) set out in Article 5 of these Rules; and – the terms and conditions set out in this Article.

6.3. An Application for the inclusion of securities in the List, indicating the List section, filed by the Applicant with the Exchange, shall be the basis for the review, by the Exchange, of the issue of securities listing (except where securities are listed at the initiative of the Exchange, or where securities are issued by the Exchange).

The Application shall be accompanied by the documents referred to in Annex 1 to these Rules, or those requested by decision of the Exchange and announced via the website of the Exchange (depending on the List section and the kind/type/category of the security in respect of which the Application is filed).

Whenever any information contained in the documents referred to in Annex 1 to these Rules is amended or extended at any time prior to the completion of securities placement, the Applicant shall give written notice thereof to the Exchange.

6.4. Securities shall be listed on the basis of a listing agreement to be entered into between the Exchange and the Entity (hereinafter, the listing service agreement).

The subject matter of that agreement shall be the listing service package as envisaged by Clause 8 Article 4 of these Rules, which depends on the kind/type/category of the security and the Entity type. The agreement referred to in this Clause shall not be entered into in the circumstances set out in the Securities Market Law or if an earlier agreement exists which provides for the same services. Agreement (contract) awarded following a procurement procedure, or an order placement shall be effected in the manner prescribed by the laws of the Russian Federation.

6.5. The following securities may only be included in Level Three:

- 1) securities of corporate issuers in relation to which registration of the securities prospectus, (securities issue prospectus, privatisation plan registered as securities issue prospectus, or Russian Depository Receipts prospectus) did not take place, if in accordance with the laws of the Russian Federation, such registration is not necessary for the public circulation of securities;
- 2) securities added at the Exchange initiative or on the basis of the Application filed by a Trading member of the Exchange, and when receiving an application from an issuer to consider international securities listing submitted according to Article 7 of these Rules, in the circumstances referred to in Clause 6.6 of this Article;
- 3) securities of limited circulation in accordance with the laws of the Russian Federation, including those intended for qualified investors;
- 4) Russian depository receipts where the issuer of the underlying securities does not assume liabilities to holders of the receipts.

6.6. The Exchange may also decide to grant Level Three listing to securities as follows:

- 6.6.1. at its own initiative for the following securities (other than subfederal and municipal securities) without receiving an appropriate application from an Applicant;
 - for securities that passed the listing procedure at another trading authority;
 - for foreign issuer's securities in the course of their circulation in the circumstances referred to in the Securities Market Law, including qualified investors only;
- 6.6.2. at its own initiative upon receiving an appropriate Application from an Applicant as described in Article 7 of these Rules to consider foreign securities listing in the course of their circulation in cases specified by the Securities Market Law;
- 6.6.3. on the basis of an application from a Trading member of the Exchange for listing of securities that passed the listing procedure at another trading authority.

In the circumstances described herein, no listing service agreement shall be made.

The decision to list securities shall be made provided that the securities and the Entity meet the requirements to the listing of securities as set out in Article 5 of these Rules.

The following may be taken into account where listing is granted at the initiative of the Exchange:

- the degree of securities liquidity (for securities traded in on-exchange trading sessions);
- the degree of the Entity transparency, determined on the basis of the information disclosed at all stages of the offering process, as well as information disclosure in the form of statements of material facts.

6.7. The Exchange may make a decision to grant Level One listing to government securities of the Russian Federation at its own initiative and without receiving an appropriate Application. In this event, no listing service agreement shall be made.

Article 7. Procedure for Inclusion of Securities in the List. Specific Rules for Considering an Application and Decision-Making Procedures

7.1. The Exchange will decide whether to include or deny inclusion of securities to the relevant section of the List (level of listing) based on the Listing Department's expert opinion within the following time frames after receiving the Application and a complete set of documents:

- 1) within 5 working days for Level Three for:
 - shares of Russian issuers,
 - units of mutual funds,
 - bonds issued by Russian issuers, including those issued by municipal and sub-federal entities (with the exception of exchange-registered bonds, where a decision regarding admission to the relevant section of the List is taken simultaneously with the decision to register the bond issue),
 - bonds issued by international financial organisations, should that the bond issue be placed (or has been placed) under a bond program/prospectus, on the condition that another issue of bonds, placed under the same bond program/prospectus, has previously been admitted to the List or within 10 working days in respect of other securities.

- 2) within 5 working days for Level One or Level Two in respect of:
 - units of mutual funds,
 - bonds issued by Russian issuers, including those issued by municipal and sub-federal entities (with the exception of exchange-registered bonds, where a decision regarding admission to the relevant section of the List is taken simultaneously with the decision to register the bond issue).
 - bonds issued by international financial organisations, should that the bond issue be placed (or has been placed) under a bond program/prospectus, on the condition that another issue of bonds, placed under the same bond program/prospectus, has previously been admitted to the List, within 15 working days in respect of shares of Russian issuers and other securities.

The deadlines for deciding whether to admit or refuse admission of exchange-registered bonds or RDRs to the relevant section of the List (listing level), and simultaneously registering or refusing to register the corresponding issue, are detailed in Articles 11.2 and 13.1 of the Rules respectively.

7.2. The Exchange shall review the Application and the accompanying documents (referred to in Clause 6 of these Rules) after receiving the full document package.

In the course of Application review, the Exchange shall assess whether the securities meet the requirements of Articles 5 and 6 of these Rules and verify the entity's compliance with such requirements.

Considering an Application, the Exchange shall make a decision to include or to deny inclusion of securities in the List.

Following its review of the Application, the Exchange shall make a decision as to whether to include or deny inclusion of the securities in the List

7.3. The time frames for decision-making by the Exchange, as prescribed by Clause 1 of this Article, as well as for making other decisions envisaged by these Rules, may be revised in the following cases:

7.3.1. Where the Exchange conducts Prelisting procedures in accordance with Article 7.1 of these Rules, the decision of the Exchange to list such securities (including Exchange-registered bonds) shall be made within time limits and subject to the specific rules set out in Article 7.1 of these Rules.

7.3.2. Where the Exchange conducts the preliminary review of documents related to Exchange-registered bonds, the decision of the Exchange to register the issue (additional issue) of Exchange-registered bonds and (or) to list them, to register the Exchange-registered bond prospectus and the Exchange-registered bond program shall be made within time limits and subject to the specific rules set out in Article 11.3 of these Rules.

7.3.3. Where the Exchange turns to the Expert Council on Listing, or the IIM Expert Council (when a recommendation from the IIM Expert Council is necessary according to Clause 3.1 of Annex 3 to the Rules) for a recommendation, the time frame for respective decision-making by the Exchange shall be suspended until the recommendation is received by the Exchange.

7.3.4. In this event, the Exchange may, following the receipt of such recommendation, extend the time frame for the making of appropriate decision but not more than by 5 working days. The Exchange shall notify the Applicant of such suspension of the above-mentioned time frame.

7.3.5. If the Applicant requests the Exchange to extend (or to suspend) the time frame for making the respective decision, the Exchange may extend (suspend) such time frame by indicating it in an appropriate notice to the Applicant. The notice should indicate the date until which such extension (suspension) remains in effect.

7.3.6. The Exchange may submit a notice to the Applicant for further information and documents, inclusive of a notice to correct discrepancies or deficiencies in the documents submitted (if any) in the course of Application review (security due diligence). Such notice shall indicate time limits for the Applicant to submit corrected and (or) missing documents and (or) clarifications (if necessary).

In this event the time frame for making the relevant decision shall be suspended until the submission, by the Applicant, of the requested (revised) documents and information. The Exchange may extend the decision-making time frame for the duration of the check of the documents and information so submitted, but not more than by 5 working days.

If the Applicant fails to submit the information and documents by the deadline indicated in the notice of the Exchange, the Exchange may take a decision as provided for in Article 9 of these Rules.

Upon the submission of the respective (new) Application, the Applicant will have to re-submit the complete document package.

7.3.7. In the course of Application review (security due diligence) the Exchange may make inquiries with the Bank of Russia, competent (regulatory) government bodies and organisations (self-regulated organisations, the settlement depository, rating agencies, etc.) as to whether or not the details of the securities and the Entity, as well as the documents submitted conform to the requirements of the laws of the Russian Federation and other statutes and regulations and/or requesting explanations as to how such requirements (provisions) are to be applied.

In this event the time period for the making of the respective decision shall be suspended until receipt of the respective answer. In this event, the Exchange may, following the receipt of such answer, extend the time frame for the making of appropriate decision but not more than by 5 working days.

The Exchange may resume the time frame for the making of appropriate decision without receiving the respective answer. The Exchange shall notify the issuer of such resumption of the above-mentioned time frame.

7.3.8. The time frame for the making of the respective decision may be suspended pending the recommendations of the Expert Council on Listing indicated in Clause 9 Article 18 of these Rules, if it is impossible to receive them within the time frame provided for the making of the respective decision by the Exchange. The Exchange shall notify the issuer of such suspension of the above-mentioned time frame.

7.4. The Applicant may recall the Application before the Exchange makes a decision regarding such Application. The Exchange notifies the Applicant that the Application is not considered. In this case the documents shall not be returned to the Applicant.

7.5. When considering whether securities are to be included in Level One or Two, the Exchange shall review the Application in the manner described in Clause 2 of this Article, and shall conduct due diligence of the security and the documents submitted as necessary for such due diligence (as provided for in Article 6 of these Rules), subject to the specific provisions of this Article.

The Exchange shall conduct due diligence of the securities in relation to which the Application was filed, to ascertain whether the Entity complies with the requirements of the securities law of the Russian Federation, the Bank of Russia regulations and these Rules, as well as whether the securities meet the Level One and Two listing requirements set out in the Rules and the Bank of Russia regulations.

7.6. The countdown to the making of the respective decision, by the Exchange, shall start on the working day following that when the Application and the respective documents are filed with the Exchange (as provided for in Article 6 of these Rules).

7.7. The Applicant shall be responsible for the accuracy of information contained in the documents submitted.

7.8. The decision to include Russian shares in the List (Tier One/Tier Two/Tier Three) shall have effect on the date of the start of trading in such shares, subject to the specifics set out in Clause 8.2 and Clause 10.4 of these Rules.

If the issuer changes the date of securities placement and (or) selling, the date for the decision on inclusion of securities in the List (Level One/Level Two/Level Three) to come into force shall be rescheduled according to Clause 8.2 and Clause 10.2 of these Rules.

No separate decision shall be taken to terminate inclusion in the List (Level One/Level Two/Level Three) when the decision to include securities in the List does not come into force.

7.9. If in relation to a foreign issuer's securities, a Bank of Russia decision is necessary admitting the securities for public placement and/or public circulation in the Russian Federation, the Exchange shall, following its review of a written request from the issuer (issuer of underlying securities), draft an Application justifying possible admission of such securities to public placement and/or public circulation in the Russian Federation.

7.10. The Exchange takes the decision on adding securities issued by the Exchange in the relevant section of the List (level of listing) based on the expert opinion of the Listing Department and subject to availability of documents listed and Annex 1 thereto (considering the section of the List and type/class/category of securities).

7.11. The Exchange takes the decision on adding securities on the list at its own initiative based on the expert opinion of the Listing Department.

7.12. For the Exchange to consider, at its own initiative, the issue of inclusion of a foreign issuer's securities in the List, in accordance with Sub-Clause 6.6.2 Clause 6 of the Rules, the legal entity referred to in this Clause, may file Application with the Exchange requesting it to consider securities listing. The application shall be accompanied by the documents referred to in Clause 1.9 Annex 1 to these Rules.

Such legal entity may be an Exchange Trading Member, a Consultant, a legal or a financial advisor (hereinafter, for the purposes of this Clause, the Applicant).

The Exchange shall provide the service of reviewing the Application, based on an agreement made with the Applicant. The amount of the fee payable for the service of reviewing the securities listing application shall be approved by the Exchange and disclosed on the Exchange website.

The Exchange shall undertake a review of the application and complete documentation package within 15 working days from their receipt in accordance with the procedure described in Sub-Clause 7.2 of this Article, subject to the particularities of this Clause.

In the course of application review, the Exchange shall assess whether the securities meet the requirements of Articles 5 and 6 of these Rules. Within this period, the Exchange has the right to send the Applicant a notice of refusal to consider the application.

Following the application review, the Exchange may either decide to include the securities in the List, or refrain from making such decision. The information on the decision to include securities in the List shall be disclosed in accordance with Sub-Clause 7.13 of this Article.

7.13. Not later than 1 trading day following that of the Exchange's decision to include the securities in the List, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Applicant and the Entity of the decision made, except for exchange-registered bonds for which the decision to list them in the relevant section of the List is made concurrently with the decision to register their issue;
- disclose the information on the decision made via website of the Exchange.

Article 7.1. Securities Pre-Listing Procedure

7.1.1. Entity, Consultant or Prescribed Legal Entity (hereinafter collectively the “Applicant” in this Article) shall have the right to address the Exchange to receive the services of preliminary consideration of documents to include securities (including Exchange-registered bonds) in the List (changing the listing level). When this service is provided, the Exchange performs the securities pre-listing procedure (hereinafter, the “Securities Pre-Listing”, “Prelisting”);

7.1.2. During Securities Pre-Listing, documents are considered which are required to be submitted during the procedure of securities inclusion (including Exchange-registered bonds) in the List (Level One, Two, Three) or the procedure of changing the level of securities listing in accordance with articles 7 or 16 of the Rules.

During the Securities Pre-Listing process, no preliminary review of the issue-related documents is required in respect of exchange-registered bonds for registration of the exchange-registered bond issue in accordance with Article 11.2 of the Rules.

The preliminary review in respect of exchange-registered bonds shall be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out in Article 11.3 of the Rules.

7.1.3. Securities Pre-Listing is done by the Exchange on the basis of the Application received from the Applicant.

For Securities Pre-Listing, documents (draft documents) should be attached to the Application, the list of which is provided in Clauses 1.1 (Table 1), 1.1.1 (documents specified in sub-clauses 2, 3, 4, 25, 26, 33, 34), 1.3, 1.5, 1.7, 1.9, or 1.13 of Annex 1 to the Rules, except for Applications on including securities on the List or on changing the level of listing (depending on the section of the List and the kind/type/category of security with regard to which the Application was submitted).

7.1.4. During Securities Pre-Listing, the Exchange carries out an expert examination of the set of documents for compliance with the Rules and expert examination of securities (including Exchange-registered bonds) with regard to which the Application was submitted.

The securities expert examination is carried out by the Exchange to check the Entity’s compliance with the requirements of the Russian Federation laws on securities, regulatory acts of the Bank of Russia and the Rules, as well as compliance of the data in securities with the requirements provided by the Rules and regulatory acts of the Bank of Russia to include the securities into the relevant level of the List.

7.1.5. The procedure of consideration of the Application and a complete set of documents, submitted for Pre-listing, complies with the procedure specified in Article 7 of the Rules, taking into account the peculiarities set by this Article.

7.1.6. The Exchange shall provide Securities Pre-Listing Services within 15 working days from the date of receiving the Application and a full package of documents required.

7.1.7. The Exchange provides the services specified in Clause 7.1.1 of this Article:

- To the Entity – on the basis of the listing services agreement or an agreement on preliminary consideration of documents;
- To the Consultant or Prescribed Legal Entity – on the basis of the agreement on preliminary consideration of documents.

7.1.8. Following Pre-listing, the Exchange shall, based on the expert conclusion of the Listing Department, send a notice to the Applicant about the results of preliminary documents consideration which contains the information about compliance (non-compliance) of the set of documents for inclusion of securities (Exchange-registered bonds) in the List with the requirements of the Rules, and also about compliance (non-compliance) of securities (including Exchange-registered bonds) with the requirements of the Russian Federation laws on securities, requirements set in the regulatory acts of the Bank of Russia and the Rules for their inclusion in the relevant level of the List;

If discrepancies are found in the submitted documents, the notice of the results of preliminary documents consideration shall also specify the discrepancies found and/or specify sending in the electronic form of the relevant document that contains the found discrepancies and/or recommendations of the Exchange.

7.1.9. Receipt of a notice by the Applicant about compliance of submitted documents with all the necessary requirements is not the reason for the Exchange to make a positive decision about inclusion of securities (inclusive of Exchange-registered bonds) in the List (changing the level of listing).

7.1.10. Within 3 months (but no later than 15 working days before the term expiration) from the date of sending the notice about the results of preliminary documents consideration by the Exchange (pre-listing), the Applicant shall have the right to send considered documents to the Exchange for approval (expert examination) of eliminating discrepancies found by the Exchange.

If circumstances arose that touch upon the conditions defined in such documents, which require making changes after the Exchange sent the notice of preliminary documents consideration, the Applicant shall have the right to agree such changes with the Exchange within the specified terms.

The circumstances that touch upon the conditions determined in such documents that require making changes include, among other things:

- occurrence of material events, appearance of new circumstances (facts) which touch upon the financial and economic activity or corporate governance of the Entity;
- execution and disclosure of the accounting (financial) statements;
- appearance of circumstances which may produce considerable influence on making a decision to buy relevant issue-grade securities;
- making amendments in the Rules.

7.1.11. In the case of submission of an Application and the full set of documents required for inclusion of securities (including exchange-registered bonds) in the List (changes in the listing level), after their Pre-Listing, the Application submitted by the issuer must contain an indication of the performance of their Pre-listing.

7.1.12. The procedure for consideration of an Application and the full set of documents necessary for the inclusion of securities (including exchange-registered bonds) in the List (changing of the listing level) and the procedure for the Exchange to make a decision on whether or not to include the securities in the relevant section of the List (level of listing) (change the listing level) carried out after the Pre-listing of the securities is similar to the procedure specified in Articles 7 or 16 of the Rules, respectively, taking into account the peculiarities established by this Article.

7.1.13. The Exchange shall make the decision to include or to deny inclusion of securities (except for exchange-registered bonds for which the decision to list them in the relevant section of the List is made concurrently with the decision to register their issue) in the corresponding section of the List (level of listing) (change the listing level) after the provision of the Securities Pre-Listing service, within 5 working days from the date of receipt of the relevant Application, and a full set of documents submitted in accordance with Articles 6 and 7 of the Rules (regardless of the listing level).

7.1.14. The terms of making a decision specified in Clause 7.1.13 of this Article shall be applied by the Exchange subject to simultaneous compliance with the following conditions:

- the Application and the documents with regard to which the Exchange realized the Pre-Listing were submitted to the Exchange no later than 3 months from the date of sending a notice about the results of preliminary documents consideration;
- the Exchange established compliance of the submitted package of documents with the requirements of the Rules, as well as compliance of securities (except for exchange-registered bonds for which the decision to list them in the relevant section of the List is made concurrently with the decision to register their issue) with the requirements specified in the laws of the Russian Federation on securities, regulatory acts of the Bank of Russia and the Rules for inclusion of securities into the relevant level of the List, or all the discrepancies found by the Exchange following Pre-listing were corrected in the submitted documents;

- all the conditions specified in Clause 7.1.10 of this Article are complied with regard to approval (expert examination) of elimination of discrepancies found by the Exchange, and/or making relevant changes in the documents with regard to which the Exchange realized pre-listing;

Article 8. Determination of Securities Trading Start Date

8.1. Trading in securities shall be conducted by means of the Exchange making a decision determining the securities trading start date in the course of placement/circulation (or on the procedure for determining such date) concurrently with effecting appropriate changes to the Moscow Exchange Trading System, provided that the documents listed in Annex 1 to the Rules (Table 1 and Table 2, Clause 1.1 or Table 2, Clause 1.9) are submitted.

8.2. The following specific rules apply to the Exchange's decision determining the securities trading start date in the course of placement/circulation:

1) The Exchange shall make the decision determining the securities trading start date in the course of placement taking into account the placement start date set by the Entity, and in events specified in Clause 2 and Clause 12 Article 22 of the Securities Market Law, subject to the securities prospectus registration or notification of the securities prospectus preparation (if so required).

The Entity shall have the trading start date in the course of placement agreed with the Exchange.

2) The Exchange make the decision determining start date for Russian shares trading provided that the period from the date of submission of the Application for inclusion of such shares in the List (Level One/Second/Third Level) to the date of the start of trading in such shares does not exceed 6 months.

For the Exchange to make a decision on the start date of trading in shares of Russian issuers, a notice on the start of trading (placement/selling) specifying the date (period) for trading (placement/selling) to start shall be submitted to the Exchange. The above date (period) must not exceed the period specified in this Sub-clause. The notice shall be submitted by the Issuer simultaneously with the Application for inclusion of shares in the List (Level One/Level Two/Level Three) according to the procedure described in Annex 1 to the Rules (Sub-clause 1.1. of Table 1).

Before the above period expires, the Issuer has the right to decide to postpone (change) the start date of trading (placement/selling) for shares. In this case, the Issuer must notify the Exchange about such change one day before the date of beginning of placement and (or) selling of securities at the latest through sending a new notice on beginning of trading (placement/selling).

3) In relation to securities placed via Exchange trading, the Exchange shall make the decision determining the trading start date in the course of circulation (or on the procedure for determining such date):

- in relation to securities where the issuance procedure is not accompanied by the state registration of the securities issue (additional issue) results report, provided that the circulation of such securities is allowed following full payment therefor;
- in relation to securities where the issuance procedure is accompanied by the state registration of the securities issue (additional issue) results report, provided that such document is filed with the Exchange (for corporate issuers);
- in respect of securities of a foreign issuer, provided that the circulation of securities is allowed after their full payment, and in case that, the placement of shares of a foreign issuer and securities convertible into shares of a foreign issuer, which were not placed through public offering with the payment in cash or securities admitted to organised trading, and were not admitted to organised trading, also before the notification of the results of their placement to the Bank of Russia and the Exchange.

4) In relation to government, subfederal and municipal securities, the Exchange shall make decisions determining the securities trading start date in the course of circulation, concurrently with the decision determining the securities trading start date in the course of placement, unless the issuance terms and conditions provide otherwise.

8.3. In the event that securities are placed through trading on the Exchange, issuers shall be obliged to get approvals from the Exchange regarding the text of a document that contains securities placement conditions not later than 12:00 Moscow time of a working day preceding the placement date.

8.4. In the event that securities are placed through trading on the Exchange, the placement terms and conditions (as it relates to information that defines the procedure for the securities placement on the Exchange) contained in the prospectus or in a separate document should comply with the Trading Rules on the Securities Market of the Moscow Exchange.

8.5. The Exchange shall disclose the notice of the decision made by the Exchange to determine the trading start date in the course of placement (circulation) via the website of the Exchange at least 1 hour prior to the commencement of on-exchange trading in the respective securities.

Article 9. Grounds for Denial of Listing (Change in the Listing Level) / Determination of Trading Start Date, Denial of Delisting, as well as other registration activities of the Exchange

9.2.9. the Entity fails to perform any financial obligations or other obligations owed to the Exchange under the listing service agreement and (or) agreement for preliminary examination of documents entered into in accordance with these Rules;

9.2.10. the Entity fails to comply with the audit requirements for annual financial statements/consolidated annual financial statements (financial reporting) as prescribed by the legislation of the Russian Federation and these Rules.

9.2.11. any additional information, data or documents as requested by the Exchange are not provided;

9.2.12. any necessary documents as envisaged by Articles 6, 8, 11-2 –13-2 of these Rules are not provided in the to the extent, in the manner and within the time limits specified;

9.2.13. the Entity fails to comply with all mandatory requirements for voluntary desisting, including those stipulated by Federal Law No. 208-FZ of 26 December 1995 “On Joint Stock Companies” (hereinafter referred to as the “Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies”), shall not apply to securities issued by foreign issuers.

9.2.14. for the purposes of protecting the rights and valid interests of the holders of securities and/or investors on the securities market.

9.3. The Exchange shall deny to register the issue (additional issue) of securities, to register the program of Exchange-registered bonds, to register the prospectus or to register changes to the decision on the issue of securities, to the program of exchange-registered bonds and to the prospectus of securities based on the grounds provided for in Clause 9.2 of this Article and (or) Article 21 of the Securities Market Law.

9.4. If the Exchange decides to deny listing, in parallel it makes a decision to deny the registration of the issue of such securities and securities prospectus (if registration of securities is accompanied by the preparation and registration of their prospectus).

9.5. If the Exchange decides as mentioned in Clause 9.1 of this Article, a notice containing the reasons for such denials shall be sent to the Applicant within 3 working days after the respective decision was made by the Exchange.

9.6. The Exchange may, on the basis of an expert opinion issued by the Listing Department and recommendation from the Expert Council on Listing (if so asked for), deny without explanation listing of the Applicant's securities (inclusion of securities in the quotation list, making a change in the listing level, or determination of the trading start date) and registration activities. A notice of the decision made shall be given to the Applicant within 3 working days after the decision date.

SUBSECTION 2.2. SPECIFIC RULES GOVERNING LEVEL ONE AND LEVEL TWO

LISTING OF SECURITIES

Article 10. Specific Rules Governing Level One and Level Two Listing of Securities

10.1. Level One or Level Two listing of security, depending on the kind/type/category of securities, and the Entity shall be effected in accordance with the requirements, terms and conditions set out in Articles 5, 6 and this Article of these Rules, as well as in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 7 of these Rules.

10.2. Securities of limited circulation in accordance with the laws of the Russian Federation, including those intended for qualified investors, as well as mortgage participation certificates may not be included in Level One or Level Two.

10.3. The securities of micro-lending institutions may not be included in Level One.

10.4. Shares or depositary receipts representing shares may be included in Level One or Level Two regardless of whether they comply with the requirements to the number of free-float shares of the issuer provided for in Sub-Clause 1 Clause 2.21 Annex 2 to these Rules, if it is expected that such requirements will be met by the time of the proposed placement and/or proposed sale of such shares or depositary receipts representing shares.

Share placement and/or sale transactions must be finalised within one month of the securities being admitted to the relevant level of the Quotation List.

The decision to admit such securities to the Level One or Level Two List shall be made by the Exchange prior to the placement and/or sale of the securities, provided that the date on which the decision to list the securities takes effect shall not be earlier than the starting date of such placement or sale.

The date for the start of trading in Russian shares shall be set in accordance with the procedure and time frames described in Clause 8.2 of the Rules.

If the securities placement and/or sale starting date changes, the effective date of the decision to admit the Securities to the Level One or Level Two List shall move accordingly. If the issuer decides to shift (change) the securities placement and/or sale starting date, the issuer shall notify the Exchange of such change in the securities placement and/or sale starting date at least one day before such securities placement and/or sale starting date.

10.5. When considering the listing of securities as Level One or Level Two, the following may be taken into account in addition to the requirements and conditions set out in this Article:

- the issuer's financial position;
- the issuer's reputation and trustworthiness;
- potential investors' interest towards the security;
- any circumstances (facts) giving grounds to believe that the investors' rights and interests may have been violated.

SUBSECTION 2.3. SPECIFIC RULES GOVERNING THE LISTING OF EXCHANGE-REGISTERED BONDS, EXCHANGE-REGISTERED RDRs, AND/OR REGISTRATION ACTIVITIES OF THE EXCHANGE

Article 11.1. Registration activities of the Exchange

- 11.1.1. Registration activities of the Exchange shall include the following:
- registration (denial of registration) issues (additional issues) of securities and (or) securities prospectus, Exchange-registered bond program;
 - registration (denial of registration) of changes to the decision to effect the issues of securities, Exchange-registered bond program or securities prospectus;
 - suspension or resumption of securities issuance;
 - declaring an issue (additional issue) of securities or an exchange-registered bond program void and cancellation of their registration;

– cancellation of securities issue or Exchange-registered bond program registration if the event that the issue (additional issue) of securities or an exchange-registered bond program is declared void.

11.1.2. The Exchange shall carry out its registration activities in accordance with the requirements of the Russian Federation laws on securities, regulatory documents of the Bank of Russia and in accordance with specifics of these Rules

Article 11.2. Registration of issues (additional issues) of exchange-registered bonds and assignment of registration numbers to issues (additional issues) of exchange-registered bonds. Peculiarities of inclusion in the List of exchange-registered bonds.

11.2.1. The issuance of exchange-registered bonds and the registration of their issues (additional issues) shall be carried out in accordance with the procedure established by the Securities Market Law and the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

11.2.2. The decision to register an issue of exchange-registered bonds shall be made by the Exchange simultaneously with the decision to include such exchange-registered bonds in the List, except in the case of inclusion in the List of exchange-registered bonds that were registered and/or to which an ID number was assigned earlier.

The Exchange shall make a decision to include or deny inclusion of exchange-registered bonds that were registered and/or to which an ID number was assigned earlier in the relevant section of the List (level of listing) in accordance with the procedure specified in Article 7 of the Rules and without taking into account the peculiarities specified by this Article.

11.2.3. The decision to register an additional issue of exchange-registered bonds is not accompanied by a decision to include such additional issue in the List. An additional issue of exchange-registered bonds shall be admitted to trading on the basis of a previously adopted decision of the Exchange to include an issue of exchange-registered bonds which has been placed and with respect to which this issue of exchange-registered bonds to be placed is additional in the List.

11.2.4. The Exchange shall make the decision to register an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds simultaneously with the decision to register the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds, unless the registration of the issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds is not accompanied by the registration of their prospectus in accordance with Clause 1 of Article 22 of the Securities Market Law.

The Exchange shall not make a decision to register the prospectus for exchange-registered bonds if, instead of a prospectus of exchange-registered bonds, the issuer has submitted a notification of its preparation to the Exchange in accordance with the regulations of the Bank of Russia. The same legal consequences arise when the Exchange receives a notice of exchange bond prospectus preparation as from the registration of an exchange bond prospectus.

11.2.5. Upon the registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds, such issue (additional issue) shall be assigned a registration number by the Exchange in accordance with the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

11.2.6. The Exchange shall register an issue of exchange-registered bonds and include the exchange-registered bonds in the List or register an additional issue of exchange-registered bonds on the basis of the corresponding Application.

The Application shall be accompanied by the documents listed in Clause 1.1.1 of Annex 1 to the Rules (Table 1).

The Application and documents for registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds and inclusion of the exchange-registered bonds in the List must be submitted to the Exchange no later than one month from the date of approval of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds if the registration of the issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds is accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds, and in the event that the notice of prospectus preparation is submitted simultaneously with the Application..

If, before the registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds, circumstances arise that may significantly affect the decision to purchase the exchange-registered bonds, the issuer must submit the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds amended to reflect such circumstances to the Exchange (unless the issuer discloses information in the form of an issuer's report and corporate action notices in accordance with Clause 4 of Article 30 of the Securities Market Law).

11.2.7. The procedure for consideration of the Application and the full set of documents, as well as the procedure for the Exchange to make a decision to register or deny registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds; to register or deny registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds, if the registration of the issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds is accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds; and to include or deny inclusion of the exchange-registered bonds in the relevant section of the List (level of listing) shall be similar to the procedure specified in Article 7 of the Rules, taking into account the peculiarities established by this Article.

11.2.8. The Exchange shall make the decision to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered bonds issue; to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus, if registration of the exchange-registered bonds issue is accompanied by the preparation and registration of the exchange-registered bond prospectus; and to include or deny inclusion of the exchange-registered bonds in the List (regardless of the listing level) on the basis of the expert opinion of the Listing Department within the following periods from the date of submission of the Application and the full set of required documents:

1) in the case of registration of an issue of exchange-registered bonds which is accompanied by the registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus whether such bonds are placed within the bond program or bond prospectus – within 20 working days; or after the provision of the service of Preliminary review of issue documents for exchange-registered bonds in accordance with Article 11.3 of the Rules – within 5 working days;

2) in the case of registration of an issue of exchange-registered bonds placed within the framework of an exchange-registered bond program which is not accompanied by the preparation and registration of a securities prospectus (including when a notification about the preparation of the exchange-registered bond prospectus is submitted) – within 7 working days; or after the provision of the service of Preliminary review of issue documents for exchange-registered bonds in accordance with Article 11.3 of the Rules – within 3 working days;

3) in the case of registration of an issue of exchange-registered bonds not placed within the framework of an exchange-registered bond program, which is not accompanied by the registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus (including when a notification about the preparation of the exchange-registered bond prospectus is submitted) – within 12 working days; or after the provision of the service of Preliminary review of issue documents for exchange-registered bonds in accordance with Article 11.3 of the Rules – within 5 working days.

However, the registration of an issue of exchange-registered bonds placed under a bond program, if registered simultaneously with the program itself, shall be completed within the deadlines set out in Clause 11.4.5 of the Rules governing the registration of exchange-registered bonds program.

11.2.9. The Exchange shall make a decision to register or deny registration of an additional issue of exchange-registered bonds or to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus if registration of the additional issue of exchange-registered bonds is accompanied by the preparation and registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus, on the basis of the expert opinion of the Listing Department within the following periods from the date of submission of the Application and the full set of required documents:

1) in the case of registration of an additional issue of exchange-registered bonds which is accompanied by the registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus, whether such bonds are placed within the bond program or not – within 20 working days; or after the provision of the service of Preliminary review of issue documents for exchange-registered bonds in accordance with Article 11.3 of the Rules, within 5 working days;

2) in the case of registration of an additional issue of exchange-registered bonds which is not accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds (including when a notification on the preparation of a prospectus of exchange-registered bonds has been submitted), whether such bonds are placed within the bond program or not – within 5 working days.

11.2.10. The Exchange shall provide the issuer the service of registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds, registration of exchange-registered bonds (if applicable) and inclusion of the exchange-registered bonds in the List on the basis of a listing service agreement.

11.2.11. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation electronically, it will, within 01 working day of its decision to register the issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds, to register the exchange-registered bonds prospectus (if applicable), and to list the exchange-registered bonds, submit the following information to the issuer electronically:

- notice of decisions made;
- exchange-registered bonds decision (in case of exchange-registered bond issue is registered);
- exchange-registered bonds prospectus (in the event when the registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds is accompanied by issue and registration of exchange-registered bond prospectus), as well as;
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website.

11.2.12. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation in hard copy, it will, within 3 working days following its decision to register the issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds, to register the exchange-registered bonds prospectus (if applicable), and to list the exchange-registered bonds, submit (provide) the following information to the issuer electronically or by way of delivery against signature:

- notice of decisions made;
- two copies of the exchange-registered bonds decision in case of exchange-registered bonds issue is registered;
- two copies of exchange-registered bonds prospectus in the event when the registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds is accompanied by issue and registration of exchange-registered bond prospectus, as well as
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website.

Article 11.3. Procedure for Preliminary Review of Documents in Relation to Exchange-registered Bonds

11.3.1. The issuer of exchange-registered bonds or the entity providing the issuer with the documentation drafting services in relation to exchange-registered bonds (before and hereinafter, the Consultant) may request from the Exchange the services of preliminary review of issue-related documents for exchange-registered bonds in respect of the following documents (before and hereinafter, issue-related documents in relation to exchange-registered bonds):

1) documents necessary for the registration of the exchange-registered bond program (draft of exchange-registered bond program, draft resolution on approval of exchange-registered bond program (if submitted), draft prospectus for exchange regulated bonds (if exchange-registered bond program is accompanied by preparation and registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus)/draft notice of prospectus preparation and draft resolution on approval of the prospectus for exchange-registered bonds if submitted);

2) documents necessary for the registration of the exchange-registered bonds issue:

2.1. documents necessary for the registration of one exchange-registered bond issue (draft resolution on the exchange-registered bonds issue, draft resolution on the exchange-registered bonds placement (if submitted), draft prospectus for exchange regulated bonds (if registration of the exchange-registered bonds issue is accompanied by preparation and registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus)/ draft notice of prospectus preparation and draft resolution on approval of the prospectus for exchange regulated bonds (if submitted), or

2.2. documents necessary for the registration of same-type² exchange-registered bond issues within the registered bond program, when it is not accompanied by the registration of bond prospectus (draft resolution on exchange-registered bond issue (hereinafter, the framework pre-examination);

² For the purposes of this Article, same-type issues of exchange-registered bonds shall mean issues which differ only in the series, maturity, and information on the representative of the bondholders. Where issues differ in maturity, variance in the number and length of coupon periods are also allowed.

- 1) documents necessary for the registration of an additional issue of the exchange-registered bonds, when it is accompanied by the preparation and registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus (draft resolution on placement of an additional issue of the exchange-registered bonds (if submitted), draft prospectus for exchange regulated bonds and draft resolution on approval of the prospectus for exchange regulated bonds);

- 2) in relation to documents necessary to register a program or an issue of exchange-registered bonds, including their framework pre-examination, which are not accompanied by the registration of the exchange bond prospectus (also when a notification of prospectus preparation is submitted) – within 15 working days.

11.3.4. The Exchange shall provide the preliminary review service in relation to the issue-related documents related to exchange-registered bonds: if to the issuer, based on the listing service agreement; if to the Consultant, based on the agreement of preliminary review of documents.

11.3.5. Following the preliminary review of the issue-related documents related to exchange-registered bonds the Exchange shall, based on the expert opinion issued by the Listing Department, give a notice to the Applicant (the issuer or the Consultant) that the documents related to the issue of exchange-registered bonds filed for the purposes of such preliminary review (framework pre-examination) are or are not consistent with the requirements of the laws of the Russian Federation on securities to be complied with, those including, where applicable, in connection with the offering of exchange-registered bonds (with an indication to any inconsistencies identified, and/or with an indication to the electronic submission of a document describing any inconsistencies identified and (or) the Exchange's recommendations).

11.3.6. If the issue-related documents related to exchange-registered bonds are filed after their preliminary review (framework pre-examination), an electronic application submitted by the issuer via the issuer personal account service shall contain an indication to this.

11.3.7. The procedure for consideration of the Application and the full set of documents and the procedure for the Exchange to make decisions to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered bond program, to register or deny registration of an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds, to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus and to include or deny inclusion of such exchange-registered bonds in the relevant section of the List (level of listing), carried out after the Preliminary review of issue documents on exchange-registered bonds, is similar to the procedure specified in Article 7 of the Rules, taking into account the peculiarities established by Articles 11.2, 11.4 and 11.5 of the Rules and this Article.

11.3.8. The decisions of registration or denial of registration in relation to the bond issue (additional issue) of Exchange-registered bonds, program of exchange-registered bonds or their prospectus after the Preliminary review of issue-related documents in relation to exchange-registered bonds shall be made by the Exchange within the period specified Clauses 11.2.8, 11.2.9, 11.4.6 and 11.5.3 accordingly, provided that every requirement listed below is met:

–The Exchange satisfied itself that the issue-related documents related to exchange-registered bonds that were filed for preliminary review (framework pre-examination) purposes are consistent with the requirements of the laws of the Russian Federation on securities to be complied with, including those in connection with issuance of exchange-registered bonds (where applicable), or that any inconsistencies with the requirements of the laws of the Russian Federation identified by the Exchange in the course of preliminary review were rectified in the documents so filed;

–Application and a complete set of relevant documents were filed with the Exchange within 3 months and, in case of framework pre-examination, six months after provided services for preliminary review of issue-related documents in relation to exchange-registered bonds.

–The form and content of the information in the submitted documents must align with that of the draft documents previously submitted to the Exchange under the service of the Preliminary review of issue-related documents in relation to exchange-registered bonds. Exceptions are amendments or additions made to address non-compliance with Russian Federation legislation, to incorporate recommendations from the Exchange’s preliminary (or framework preliminary) review, and to include details regarding the approval/signature of the relevant documents – such as signature dates and resolution details etc.

11.3.9. The form and contents of information included in issue-related documents on Exchange-registered bonds after their preliminary consideration, submitted to the Exchange to register a program of Exchange-registered bonds, an issue (additional issue) of exchange-registered bonds or their prospectus, comply with the requirements of laws of the Russian Federation on securities and Rules effective at the date of such documents approval or signing (at the date of making relevant decisions).

Article 11.4. Registration of an Exchange-registered Bond Program and Assignment of a Registration Number to an Exchange-registered Bond Program

11.4.1. The issuance of Exchange-Registered bonds within the framework of an Exchange-registered bond program and the registration of an exchange-registered bond program shall be carried out in accordance with the procedure established by the Securities Market Law and the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

11.4.2. The registration of an exchange-registered bond program may be accompanied by the registration of the prospectus of Exchange-Registered bonds to be placed within the framework of the Exchange-registered bond program. In this case, the Exchange shall make the decision to register the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds to be placed within the framework of the Exchange-Registered bond program simultaneously with the decision to register the Exchange-registered bond program.

The Exchange shall not make a decision to register the prospectus for Exchange-registered bonds if, instead of the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds to be placed within the framework of the Exchange-registered bond program, the issuer has submitted a notification of its preparation to the Exchange in accordance with the regulations of the Bank of Russia. The same legal consequences arise when the Exchange receives a notice of exchange bond prospectus preparation as from the registration of an exchange bond prospectus.

Upon the registration of the Exchange-registered bond program, the Exchange shall assign a registration number in accordance with the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

11.4.3. Registration an Exchange-registered bond program shall be effected by the Exchange on the basis of an Application.

The Application shall be accompanied by the documents referred to in Clause 1.1.2 Annex 1 to these Rules.

The Application together with the documents to register an Exchange-registered bond program shall be filed with the Exchange within three months after the date of the Exchange-registered bond program approval by the issuer, and where the prospectus of the Exchange-registered bonds placed within the Exchange-registered bond program is issued and registered for the purposes registering the Exchange-registered bond program or by notice of bond prospectus preparation, within one month after the date of such Exchange-registered bond prospectus approval by the issuer.

If, before the registration of an exchange-registered bond program accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds placed within the program, circumstances arise that may significantly affect the decision to purchase the exchange-registered bonds, the issuer must submit the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds amended to reflect such circumstances to the Exchange (unless the issuer discloses information in the form of an issuer's report and corporate action notices in accordance with Clause 4 of Article 30 of the Securities Market Law).

11.4.4. The procedure for the review of the Application and the complete set of documents filed for the registration of an Exchange-registered bond program, as well as the procedure for the making, by the Exchange, of a decision to register or deny registration of the Exchange-registered bond program, shall be consistent with the procedure referred to in Article 7 of these Rules, with due regard to the specific rules set out in this Article.

11.4.5. The Exchange shall make a decision to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered bond program, to register or deny registration of the prospectus for the exchange-registered bonds placed within the program (if registration of the Exchange-registered bond program is accompanied by the preparation and registration of an Exchange-registered bond prospectus) on the basis of the expert opinion of the Listing Department within the following time limits after the full set of required documents is received:

- 1) within 20 working days in relation to the exchange-registered bond program registration accompanied by the registration of bond prospectus; and within 5 working days after the provision of services on the Preliminary review of issue documents for exchange-registered bonds according to Clause 11.3 of the Rules;
- 2) within 12 working days in relation to the exchange-registered bond program registration not accompanied by the registration of bond prospectuses (also when a notification of prospectus preparation is submitted); and within 5 working days after the provision of services on the Preliminary review of issue documents for exchange-registered bonds according to Clause 11.3 of the Rules.

11.4.6. The Exchange shall provide the registration service in relation to Exchange-registered bond programs, registration of exchange-registered bond prospectuses within the exchange-registered bond program (if applicable), on the basis of a listing service agreement.

11.4.7. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation electronically, it will, within 1 working day of its decision to register the exchange-registered bonds program and prospectus of exchange-registered bonds placed under the exchange-registered bonds program (where such registration applies) submit the following information to the issuer electronically:

- notice of decisions made;
- exchange-registered bonds program;
- exchange-registered bonds prospectus in the event when the registration of exchange-registered bonds program is accompanied by issue and registration of exchange-registered bond prospectus, as well as
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website.

11.4.8. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation in hard copy, it will, within 3 working day following its decision to register the exchange-registered bonds program and prospectus of exchange-registered bonds placed under the exchange-registered bonds program (where such registration applies) submit (provide) the following information to the issuer electronically or by way of delivery against signature:

- notice of decisions made;
- two copies of exchange-registered bonds program;
- two copies of exchange-registered bonds prospectus in the event when registration of exchange-registered bonds program is accompanied by issue and registration of exchange-registered bond prospectus, as well as
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website

Article 11.5. Registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus, including registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus subsequently. Submission of a notice of the exchange bond prospectus preparation, including submission of a notice of the exchange bond prospectus preparation subsequently 11.5.1. If the registration of the issue of exchange-registered bonds or the program of exchange-registered bonds was not accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered bonds, in accordance with the procedure provided for in Articles 11.2 and 11.4 of the Rules, it may be prepared and registered thereafter.

In that case the issuer may submit to the Exchange the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds, or, according to Clause 2 in Article 22 of the Securities Law, in events specified in bank of Russia's regulatory documents the issuer may submit a notice of prospectus preparation instead of exchange-registered bond prospectus.

11.5.2. The Exchange shall register a prospectus of exchange-registered bonds, also subsequently, on the basis of an Application.

The Application shall be accompanied by the documents listed in Clause 1.1.3 of Annex 1 to the Rules (Table 1).

The Application and documents for registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus must be submitted to the Exchange no later than one month from the date of approval of the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds by the issuer.

The procedure for consideration of the Application and the full set of documents submitted for registration of an exchange-registered bond prospectus, as well as the procedure for the Exchange to make a decision to register or deny registration of the exchange-registered bond prospectus, corresponds to the procedure specified in Article 7 of the Rules, taking into account the peculiarities established by this Article.

11.5.3. The Exchange shall make a decision to register or deny registration of a prospectus of exchange-registered bonds on the basis of the expert opinion of the Listing Department within 20 working days; or after the provision of the Preliminary review of issue documents for exchange-registered bonds in accordance with Article 11.3 of the Rules, within 5 working days from the date of submission of the Application and the full set of required documents.

11.5.4. The Exchange shall provide the issuer the service of registration of the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds on the basis of a listing service agreement.

11.5.5. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation electronically, it will, within 1 working day following its decision to register the exchange-registered bonds prospectus, submit the following information to the issuer electronically:

- notice of decisions made;
- exchange-registered bonds prospectus electronically, as well as
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website.

11.5.6. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation in hard copy, it will, within 3 working day following its decision to register the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds, submit (provide) to the issuer electronically or by way of delivery against signature:

- notice of decisions made;
- two copies of exchange-registered bond prospectus, as well as
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website.

11.5.7. The issuer submits to the Exchange the notice of exchange-registered bond prospectus preparation, also subsequently, amid the letter on such notice and documents listed in Clause 1.1.3 of Annex 1 to the Rules (Table 2).

The issuer shall submit the notice of exchange-registered bond prospectus preparation, the letter, and necessary documents to the Exchange at least one month from the date of prospectus approval by the issuer.

If the issuer has submitted the notice of exchange-registered bond prospectus registration, the decision on registration of such prospectus will not be made, while the same legal consequences arise when the Exchange receives such notice as from the registration of the exchange-registered bond prospectus.

11.5.8. At least three working days after the Exchange receives necessary documents according to Clause 11.5.6 of the Rules, the Exchange notifies the issuer of receiving the notice of exchange-registered bond preparation by post or email, or by hand delivery against receipt.

Article 12.1. Registration of amendments to a decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds, to a prospectus of Exchange-registered bonds and/or to a program of Exchange-registered bonds.

12.1.1. Amendments to the decision on the issue of exchange-registered bonds, to the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds and/or to the program of exchange-registered bonds shall be made in accordance with the procedure established by the Securities Market Law and the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

12.1.2. If the issuer has submitted a notification to the Exchange about the preparation of a prospectus of exchange-registered bonds, when such prospectus of exchange-registered bonds is amended, the Exchange must be notified of such changes.

The receipt by the Exchange of a notice about amendments to a prospectus of exchange-registered bonds shall entail the same legal consequences as the registration of amendments made to the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds.

A decision to register amendments to a prospectus of exchange-registered bonds shall not be made if, instead of amendments to the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds, in accordance with the regulations of the Bank of Russia, the issuer has submitted a notification to the Exchange on amendments to the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds.

12.1.3. The Exchange shall register amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds, to the Exchange-registered bond prospectus, and (or) changes to the Exchange-registered bond program on the basis of an Application.

The Application shall be accompanied by the documents referred to in Clause 1.1.4 Annex 1 to these Rules.

The Application and the documents for the Exchange to register any amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds or to the Exchange-registered bond prospectus effected before completion (or expiration) of placement of Exchange-registered bonds, shall be filed with the Exchange within 15 days from the date when the issuer's competent governance body (authorised officer) made the decision to effect such changes.

The Application and the documents for the Exchange to register any amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds insofar as they relate to replacement of the Exchange-registered bonds issuer in connection with its reorganisation, shall be filed with the Exchange before record to EGRYuL is entered on the completion of reorganisation (on termination of the reorganised legal entity's operations and/or on the establishment of a new legal entity as the result of such reorganisation).

12.1.4. The procedure for the review of the Application and the complete set of documents filed for the registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds and/or to the Exchange-registered bond prospectus, and (or) changes to the Exchange-registered bond program, as well as the procedure for the making, by the Exchange, of the decision to approve or deny registration of such changes, shall be similar to the procedure referred to in Article 7 of these Rules, subject to the specific rules set out in this Article.

12.1.5. The Exchange shall make a decision to register or deny registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds and/or to the Exchange-registered bond prospectus, changes to the Exchange-registered bond program on the basis of the expert opinion of the Listing Department within 15 working days from the date of submission of the Application and the full set of required documents

12.1.6. The service of registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds and/or to the Exchange-registered bond prospectus, changes to the Exchange-registered bond program, shall be provided by the Exchange to the issuer on the basis of a listing service agreement, and if the exchange-traded bonds are not included in the List (listing agreement is terminated) - on the basis of the agreement on registration of changes to the decision on the issue of exchange-traded bonds.

12.1.7. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation electronically, it will, within 1 working day following its decision to register amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decisions, amendments to the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds and to the exchange-registered bonds program submit the following information to the issuer electronically:

- notice of decisions made;
- amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decision (in case of exchange-registered bond issue is registered) via electronic communication;
- amendments to the prospectus (in case amendments to the exchange-registered bonds prospectus are registered) via electronic communication;
- amendments to the exchange-registered bonds program in case of amendments in the exchange-registered bonds program are registered, as well as
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website.

12.1.8. Should the Exchange receive the Application and a complete set of documentation in hard copy, it will, within 3 working day following its decision to register amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decisions, amendments to the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds, amendments to the exchange-registered bonds program, submit (provide) the following information to the issuer electronically or by way of delivery against signature:

- notice of decisions made;
- two copies of amendments in the exchange-registered bonds decision in case of amendments in the decision on the issue of exchange-registered bonds are registered;
- two copies of amendments in the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds in case of amendments in the prospectus of exchange-registered bonds are registered;
- two copies of amendments in the exchange-registered bonds program in case of amendments in the exchange-registered bonds program are registered, as well as
- disclose information on the decisions made on the Exchange's website.

Article 12.2. Specifics of making Amendments to Decision on the Issue of Exchange-registered Bonds as Regards Details of Exchange-registered Bondholders' Representative, Effected by Means of Notification

12.2.1. Changes to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds in the part of information about the representative of the holders of Exchange-registered bonds shall be made by sending a notice thereof to the Exchange with the data of such representative (hereinafter, a notice of bond holders' representative), presented by the issuer or a representative of the holders of exchange-registered bonds.

If a prospect is registered for the Exchange-registered bonds, the decision on the issue of which is changed in part of the information about the representative of bond holders, and the specified changes are made before the completion of the placement of Exchange-registered bonds, the changes made in the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds by notification of the representative of the owners of Exchange-registered bonds, shall also be considered as made in the prospectus of Exchange-registered bonds.

12.2.2. The notice of the bond holders' representative shall be accompanied by the letter and documents referred to in Clause 1.1.5 Annex 1 to these Rules.

If the issuer of Exchange-registered bonds appoints, or the general meeting of Exchange-registered bondholders elects, an Exchange-registered bondholders' new representative, the issuer shall make amendments to the decision on the issue of exchange-registered bonds through a notice thereof to the Exchange within 30 days after the date of such appointment (election) of the Exchange-registered bondholders' new representative. If the above-mentioned deadline is missed, such notice may be given by the Exchange-registered bondholders' new representative.

12.2.3. Changes in the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds in the part of information about the representative of the holders of such bonds are considered registered after expiration of seven working days from the date the Exchange receives a notification thereof, provided that the Exchange does not decide to deny registering within the specified period of time.

Within the given period, the Exchange shall be entitled to submit a request for the necessary documents and a request to correct discrepancies in the submitted documents (if such discrepancies are detected). If the Applicant fails to submit the requested documents within the specified period, the Exchange shall have the right to deny registering such changes.

12.2.4. The Exchange shall provide the service for registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds as regards the details of the Exchange-registered bondholders' representative: if to the issuer, based on the listing service agreement, and if the exchange-traded bonds are not included in the List - on the basis of the agreement on registration of changes to the decision on the issue of exchange-traded bonds; if to the Exchange-registered bondholders' representatives, based on the agreement of registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds.

12.2.5. When the Exchange does not reject registering amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds made by way of a notice of the Exchange-registered bondholders' representative in seven working day, no later than one working day after the said period expires, the Exchange shall disclose the registration of amendments on its website.

12.2.5.1. Should the Exchange receive a notification regarding the representative of the holder of exchange-registered bonds from the issuer or the new representative via electronic means, the Exchange will, no later than one (1) working day after the said period expires, submit via electronic means a notification to:

- the issuer (the new Exchange-registered bondholders' representative if a notification of a representative of the holder of exchange-registered bonds has been received), confirming that the amendments to the decision on the issuance of bonds, relating to the details of the representative of such holders, are deemed registered;
- the issuer (the new Exchange-registered bondholders' representative, if a notification of a representative of the holder of exchange-registered bonds has been received), concerning the bondholder's representative;

12.2.5.2. Should the Exchange receive a notification regarding the representative of the holder of exchange-registered bonds from the issuer or the new representative in paper form, the Exchange will, within 3 working days of the expiry of the period mentioned above, submit (provide) by postal mail or by personal delivery with signature acknowledgment:

- a notification to the issuer (the new Exchange-registered bondholders' representative if a notification of a representative of the holder of exchange-registered bonds has been received), confirming that the amendments to the decision on the issuance of bonds, relating to the details of the representative of such holders, are deemed registered;
- one copy of the notification with details of the representative of holders of the exchange-registered bonds to the new representative (if the notification of the representative of the exchange-registered bonds was presented by the new representative);
- two copies of the notification with details of the representative of holders of the exchange-registered bonds to the issuer of exchange-registered bonds.

12.2.6. Exchange made the decision to reject registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered bonds made through a notice of an Exchange-registered bondholders' representative the Exchange shall within 1 working day following the decision:

- notify the issuer (and the new Exchange-registered bondholders' representative, if the application was filed by such representative) of the decision so made by postal mail or electronically, or else by personal delivery with receipt acknowledged (depending on whether the Exchange has received the notification regarding the representative of holders of exchange-registered bonds by electronic means or in paper form, respectively);
- disclose the information on the decision made via the website of the Exchange.

Article 12.3. Particulars relating to amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decision, specifically concerning the collateral account bank details holding the funds constituting the mortgage collateral for exchange-registered mortgage-backed bonds, where the issuer is a mortgage agent, which are made by way of notification.

12.3.1. Amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decision regarding the collateral account bank details shall be submitted to the Exchange by way of a notification from the issuer containing those details (hereinafter the "bank details notification").

12.3.2. Alongside the bank details notification, a letter and documents as detailed in Clause 1.1.5 of Annex 1 to the Rules must be submitted.

12.3.3. Amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decision regarding the collateral account bank details shall be regarded as registered 7 working days after the Exchange receives the bank details notification, unless the Exchange decides to reject their registration within that period.

Within that period, the Exchange may request any required documents and, should inconsistencies emerge, ask for the submitted documents to be corrected. Should the applicant fail to provide the requested documentation within that period, the Exchange may reject to register the amendments.

12.3.4. The Exchange provides the issuer with a service for registering amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decisions regarding the collateral account bank details, pursuant to the listing services agreement.

12.3.5. If the Exchange does not reject the amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decision submitted with the bank details notification within 7 working days, the Exchange will, no later than one (1) working day after the specified period expires, disclose the registration of amendments on its website.

12.3.5.1. If the Exchange receives a notification regarding bank details from the Issuer of bonds via electronic communication means, the Exchange shall, no later than one (1) working day following the expiration of the specified period, submit to the Issuer via electronic communication means:

- a notification confirming that the amendments to the decision on the issuance of exchange-registered bonds concerning the bank details of the collateral account, submitted through such notification, are deemed registered; and
- the bank details notification.

12.3.5.2. If the Exchange receives a notification regarding bank details from the Issuer of bonds in paper form, the Exchange shall, within three (3) working days following the expiration of the specified period, submit to the Issuer) by postal mail or by personal delivery with signature acknowledgment:

- a notification confirming that the amendments to the decision on the issuance of exchange-registered bonds concerning the bank details of the collateral account, submitted through such notification, are deemed registered; and
- two copies of the bank details notification.

12.3.6. If the Exchange decides to refuse to register the amendments to the exchange-registered bonds decision regarding bank details submitted via the bank details notification, the Exchange will, no later than one business day following the date of that decision:

- issue a notification to the issuer regarding the refusal to register the aforementioned amendments, detailing the reasons for such refusal, by postal or electronic means, or by personal delivery with a signed acknowledgement of receipt (depending on whether the Exchange has received the notification regarding the representative of holders of exchange-registered bonds by electronic means or in paper form, respectively);
- disclose the decisions made on the website of the Exchange.

Article 13.1. Registration of issues of exchange-registered RDRs and assignment of registration numbers to issues of exchange-registered RDRs. Peculiarities of inclusion in the List of exchange-registered RDRs.

13.1.1. The issuance of exchange-registered RDRs and the registration of their issues is carried out in accordance with the procedure established by the Securities Market Law and the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

13.1.2. The Exchange shall make a decision to register issues of exchange-registered RDRs in the process of their placement simultaneously with the decision to include such exchange-registered RDRs in the List.

The Exchange shall make a decision to include or deny inclusion of exchange-registered RDRs which issue was registered earlier in the relevant section of the List (level of listing) in accordance with the procedure provided for in Article 7 of the Rules, without taking into account the peculiarities established by this Article.

13.1.3. The Exchange shall make a decision to register the issue of exchange-registered RDRs in the process of their placement simultaneously with the decision to register the prospectus of exchange-registered RDRs, unless the registration of the issue of exchange-registered RDRs is not accompanied by the preparation and registration of their prospectus in accordance with Clause 1 of Article 22 of the Securities Market Law.

The decision to register the prospectus for exchange-registered RDRs shall not be made if, instead of the prospectus of exchange-registered RDRs, the issuer has submitted a notification of its preparation to the Exchange in accordance with the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

13.1.4. Upon the registration of the issue of exchange-registered RDRs, the Exchange shall assign a registration number to such issue in accordance with the regulations of the Bank of Russia.

13.1.5. The Exchange shall register an issue of exchange-registered RDRs and include the exchange-registered RDRs in the List on the basis of an Application.

The Application shall be accompanied by the documents listed in Clause 1.13 of Annex 1 to the Rules.

The Application and documents for registration of the issue of exchange-registered RDRs and the inclusion of exchange-registered RDRs in the List must be submitted to the Exchange no later than one month from the date of approval by the issuer's authorized body of the decision to issue exchange-registered RDRs.

If, before the registration of an issue of exchange-registered RDRs accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered RDRs, circumstances arise that may significantly affect the decision to purchase the exchange-registered RDRs, the issuer must submit the prospectus of the exchange-registered RDRs amended to reflect such circumstances to the Exchange (unless the issuer discloses information in the form of an issuer's report and corporate action notices in accordance with Clause 4 of Article 30 of the Securities Market Law).

13.1.6. The procedure for consideration of the Application and the full set of documents, as well as the procedure for the Exchange to make a decision to register or deny registration of an issue of exchange-registered RDRs; to register or deny registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered RDRs, if the registration of the issue of exchange-registered RDRs is accompanied by the preparation and registration of the prospectus of the exchange-registered RDRs; and to include or deny inclusion of the exchange-registered RDRs in the relevant section of the List (level of listing) shall be similar to the procedure specified in Article 7 of the Rules, taking into account the peculiarities established by this Article.

13.1.7. The Exchange shall make the decision to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered RDR issue; to register or deny registration of an exchange-registered RDR prospectus if registration of the exchange-registered RDR issue is accompanied by the preparation and registration of an exchange-registered RDR prospectus; and to include or deny inclusion of the exchange-registered RDRs in the List (regardless of the listing level) on the basis of the expert opinion of the Listing Department within 15 working days from the date of submission of the Application and the full set of required documents.

13.1.8. The service of registration of Exchange-registered RDRs and inclusion of the exchange-registered RDRs in the List, shall be provided by the Exchange to the issuer on the basis of a listing service agreement.

- at least 30 days before the proposed date of change in the scope and/or procedure for exercising the rights attaching to the underlying securities in accordance with a foreign law, but not earlier than the date on which the depository that is the issuer of the Exchange-registered RDRs was or should have been aware of the proposed date of such change in the scope and/or procedure for exercising the rights attaching to the underlying securities;
- within 30 days from the date of entering into (signing of) the agreement on amendments to the terms and conditions of the contract between the issuer of underlying securities and the issuer of the Exchange-registered RDRs.

13.2.4. The procedure of reviewing the application and a complete set of documents, and the order of for the Exchange to make a decision to register or deny registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered RDRs and (or) in the prospectus of Exchange-registered RDRs are similar to the procedure referred to in Article 7 of these Rules in relation to the Application, with due regard to the specific rules set out in this Article.

13.2.5. The Exchange shall make a decision to register or deny registration of amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered RDRs and (or) in the prospectus of Exchange-registered RDRs on the basis of the expert opinion of the Listing Department within 10 working days from the date of receiving required documents.

13.2.6. The Exchange provides services to the issuer for registration amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered RDRs and (or) in the prospectus of Exchange-registered RDRs based on the agreement for listing services.

13.2.7. Within 1 working day following that when the Exchange makes the decision on registering amendments to the decision on the issue of Exchange-registered RDRs and/or to the Exchange-registered RDRs prospectus, the Exchange shall:

- notify the issuer of the decision(s) so made by post or electronically, or else by personal delivery with receipt acknowledged;
- disclose the information on the decision made via the website of the Exchange.

Article 14.1. Suspension and resumption of securities issuance

14.1.1. The issuance of securities whose issue (additional issue) has been registered (is being registered) by the Exchange may be suspended by the Exchange in the event of discovery of the circumstances indicated in Clause 1 Article 26 of the Securities Market Law at any stage of securities issuance before the beginning of securities placement.

The Exchange shall make a decision on the suspension of securities issuance based on the expert opinion of the Listing Department.

14.1.2. On or before the first working day following the day when the Exchange made a decision to suspend securities issuance, the Exchange shall:

- send the issuer a notice of the decision by post or email, or by hand delivery against receipt;
- disclose information on the decision made on the Exchange's website.

The date of the notice to the issuer on suspension of securities issuance shall be deemed the date of publication of information regarding the suspension of issuance of the securities of this issuer on the Exchange's website. The notice of suspension of securities issuance shall contain the information provided for by the regulation of the Bank of Russia.

14.1.3. If the issuer applies to the Exchange with a reasoned petition for the extension of the period for providing information and/or documents as stated in a notice of suspension of securities issuance which contains terms for providing information and/or documents subject to its extension, the Exchange, following the results of consideration of this reasoned petition, shall send (issue) the issuer, no later than 10 working days from the day following the day of receipt of this petition, a notice of a new term for providing information and/or documents.

14.1.4. To clarify all the circumstances which resulted in suspension of securities issuance, the Exchange shall request all the necessary information and/or documents from the issuer and other persons.

14.1.5. Securities issuance shall be suspended until the Exchange makes one of the following decisions (or several decisions simultaneously):

- 1) A decision to resume securities issuance:

Such decision shall be made provided that all grounds for suspension of securities issuance have been eliminated or sufficient information has been received to acknowledge the absence of such grounds.

- 2) A decision to deny:

- registration of the exchange-registered bond program;
- registration of the issue (additional issue) of securities;
- registration of amendments made to a decision on a securities issue, an exchange-registered bond program and/or to a securities prospectus before the beginning of placement of such securities.

- 3) A decision to declare an issue (additional issue) of securities void.

14.1.6. The Exchange shall make a decision to resume securities issuance based on the review of the documents confirming elimination of the violations giving rise to suspension of securities issuance, as well as other documents requested in accordance with Clause 14.1.4 hereof.

14.1.7. The Exchange shall review information and/or documents provided by the issuer in response to the notice of suspension of securities issuance or requested in accordance with Clause 14.1.4 hereof within 10 working days from the day following receipt of these documents.

14.1.8. If the violations giving rise to the suspension of securities issuance are the subject of judicial proceedings, the Exchange shall make a decision on resumption of securities issuance in accordance with a court ruling which has entered into legal force within 10 working days from the day of receipt of information and/or documents confirming its entry into legal force, unless the court ruling specifies a shorter term for making a decision on the resumption of securities issuance.

14.1.9. No later than the first working day following the day when the Exchange made the decision(-s) provided for by Clause 14.1.5 hereof, the Exchange shall:

- send the issuer a notice of the decision(-s) made, stating the date when such decision(-s) was (were) made, by post or email, or by hand delivery against receipt;
- disclose information on the decision(-s) made on the Exchange's website.

If, following the results of review of the documents provided for by Clause 14.1.6 hereof, the decision(-s) provided for by Clause 14.1.5 hereof has (have) not been made, the Exchange shall send (issue) a notice to the issuer stating the circumstances preventing the resumption of securities issuance within 1 working day from the date of expiry of the terms stated by Clauses 14.1.7 or 14.1.8 hereof.

14.1.10. If the decision on resumption of securities issuance was made at the same time as the decision on registration of an exchange-registered bond program, the decision on registration of an issue (additional issue) of securities, or the decision on registration of amendments made in a decision on an issue of securities and/or a securities prospectus, information on the resumption of securities issuance shall be included in the notice of the making of the said decision(-s) sent (issued) to the issuer.

Article 14.2. Declaring an issue (additional issue) of securities or an exchange-registered bond program void and cancellation of their registration.

14.2.1. An issue (additional issue) of securities which was registered by the Exchange may be declared void before the beginning of securities placement based on the Exchange's decision on the grounds established by Clause 4, Article 26 of the Securities Market Law.

14.2.2. If the issuer, following the procedure established by Clauses 1 and 2, Article 24.2 of the Securities Market Law, abandons securities placement after the registration of their issue (additional issue) and before the beginning of their placement (before entering into civil transactions aimed at the alienation of such securities to their first owners), the issue (additional issue) of the said securities shall be declared void due to the non-placement of any security from the issue (additional issue).

14.2.3. If the issue (additional issue) of securities is declared void, it shall result in cancellation of its registration.

14.2.4. In cases provided for by Clause 14.2.2 hereof, to declare an issue (additional issue) of securities void, the issuer must provide the following documents to the Exchange:

1) the issuer's statement on abandonment of the placement of the securities issue (additional issue) and on exclusion of securities from the List (if the securities were included the List), which shall contain information on the Issuer's full corporate name (for commercial organizations) or name (for non-commercial organizations), the registration number of the issue (additional issue) of securities and the date of its registration, as well as confirmation that no security of this issue (additional issue) has been placed;

2) a copy of (extract from) the Minutes of the meeting (order, decision or any other document) of the competent management body of the issuer provided for by Clause 2, Article 24.2 of the Securities Market Law which has made a decision to abandon the securities placement, also stating, if this decision was made by the corporate board, the quorum and the result of voting in favor of this decision.

The said documents shall be submitted to the Exchange not later than 30 days after the competent management body of the issuer makes a decision to abandon securities placement.

The said documents shall be executed in accordance with the requirements defined in Annex A of the Rules. These documents may be provided in a form of digitally signed electronic documents. In this case, provision of these documents in another format is not required.

14.2.5. The Exchange shall make a decision to declare an issue (additional issue) of securities void or a reasoned decision on refusal to declare the issue (additional issue) of securities void based on the expert opinion of the Listing Department within 10 working days from the date of receipt of the said documents.

14.2.6. The Exchange shall make a decision on refusal to declare an issue (additional issue) of securities void if the grounds established by Clause 4, Article 26 of the Securities Market Law for declaring an issue (additional issue) of securities void are absent, as well as if it is discovered that the abovementioned documents do not comply with the requirements of the Russian Federation laws on securities, and also if, during consideration of such documents, attributes of false information have been discovered in these documents.

When making a decision to refuse to declare an issue (additional issue) of securities void, the Exchange shall, within 3 working days from the day of making a decision, send a notice to the issuer stating the reasons for such refusal.

14.2.7. An exchange-registered bond program which was registered by the Exchange may be declared void by the Exchange's decision before the beginning of placement of such exchange-registered bonds as part of such program based on the grounds established by Clause 4, Article 26 of the Securities Market Law.

14.2.8. If the issuer, following the procedure established by Clause 3, Article 24.2 of the Securities Market Law, abandons placement of exchange-registered bonds as part of the exchange-registered bond program after registration of such program and before the beginning of their placement (before entering into civil transactions aimed at alienating such securities to their first owners), the exchange-registered bond program shall be declared void due to the non-placement of any exchange-registered bond as part of the exchange-registered bond program.

14.2.9. If the exchange-registered bond program is declared void, it shall result in the cancellation of its registration.

14.2.10. In the cases provided for by Clause 14.2.8 hereof, to declare an exchange-registered bond program void, the issuer must provide the following documents to the Exchange:

- 1) the issuer's statement on abandonment of the placement of exchange-registered bonds as part of the exchange-registered bond program, which shall contain information on the issuer's full corporate name (for commercial organizations) or name (for non-commercial organizations), the registration number of the exchange-registered bond program and the date of its registration, as well as confirmation that no exchange-registered bond has been placed as part of the exchange-registered bond program;
- 2) a copy of (extract from) the Minutes of the meeting (order, decision or any other document) of the competent management body of the issuer whose powers include approval of the exchange-registered bond program and which made the decision to abandon placement of exchange-registered bonds within the exchange-registered bond program, also stating, if this decision was made by the corporate board, the quorum and the result of voting in favour of this decision.

The said documents must be submitted to the Exchange not later than 30 days after the competent management body of the issuer makes a decision to abandon placement of exchange-registered bonds as part of the exchange-registered bond program.

The said documents may be provided in a form of digitally signed electronic documents. In this case, provision of these documents in another format is not required. The documents shall be produced in accordance with requirements defined in Annex A of the Rules.

14.2.11. The Exchange shall make a decision to declare a program of exchange-registered bonds void or a reasoned decision on refusal to declare the program of exchange-registered bonds void based on the expert opinion of the Listing Department within 10 working days from the date of receipt of the said documents.

14.2.12. The Exchange shall make a decision on refusal to declare a program of exchange-registered bonds void if the grounds established by Clause 4, Article 26 of the Securities Market Law for declaring a program of exchange-registered bonds void are absent, as well as if it is discovered that the abovementioned documents do not comply with the requirements of the Russian Federation laws on securities, and also if, during consideration of such documents, attributes of false information have been discovered in these documents.

When making a decision to refuse to declare a program of exchange-registered bonds void, the Exchange shall, within 3 working days from the day of making a decision, send a notice to the issuer stating the reasons for such refusal.

14.2.13. No later than the first working day following the day when the Exchange made a decision to declare an issue (additional issue) of securities or an exchange-registered bond program void and to cancel their registration, the Exchange shall:

- send the issuer a notice of the respective decision made by post or email, or by hand delivery against receipt;
- disclose information on the respective decision made on the Exchange's website.

Article 14.3. Confirmation of the making of a decision by the Exchange on the registration of an issue (additional issue) of securities, a securities prospectus or an exchange-registered bond program and amendments made to the said documents

14.3.1. The making of a decision by the Exchange on the registration of an issue (additional issue) of securities, a securities prospectus or an exchange-registered bond program and amendments made to a decision on an issue of securities, an exchange-registered bond program or a securities prospectus (further referred to as the decision of the Exchange on registration) shall be confirmed by one of the following methods:

14.3.1.1. If the documents are submitted to the Exchange in hard copy, the confirmation of the making of the respective decision on registration by the Exchange shall be:

1) A decision on the issue of securities, the exchange-registered bond program, or the securities prospectus, or amendments to the decision on the issue of securities, notification containing information about the representative of the exchange-registered bonds' holders, notice of collateral account bank details, amendments to the exchange-registered bond program or the securities prospectus, which shall contain the registration number of the issue (additional issue) of securities and/or the exchange-registered bond program (if any registration number was assigned to it) and the date the decision on registration was made (except in cases of registration of an additional issue of securities not accompanied by the preparation and registration of a securities prospectus), as well as the personal handwritten signature of an authorized official and the imprint of the Exchange's seal.

2) Publication of a decision of the Exchange on registration on the Exchange's website.

3) The sending of a notice to the issuer (another person in accordance with the Rules) containing information on the decision made by the Exchange in accordance with the Rules, including the registration number of the issue (additional issue) of securities and/or the exchange-registered bond program (if any registration number was assigned to it) and the date the Exchange made the decision on registration, signed by an authorized official of the Exchange.

14.3.1.2. If the documents were provided to the Exchange in the form of digitally signed electronic documents in accordance with Annex A to the Rules (hereinafter referred to as an electronic document), the confirmation of the making of the respective decision on registration by the Exchange shall be:

1) An electronic document containing the decision on the issue of securities, the exchange-registered bond program, the securities prospectus or amendments to a decision on the issue of securities, notification containing information about the representative of the exchange-registered bonds' holders, notice of collateral account bank details, amendments to the exchange-registered bond program or the securities prospectus (except if the registration of the additional issue of securities was not accompanied by the preparation and registration of a securities prospectus), as well as the digital signature of an authorized official in accordance with the Electronic Communication Procedures approved by the Exchange and disclosed on the Exchange's website.

2) Publication of the Exchange's decision on registration on the Exchange's website;

3) The sending of a notice to the issuer (another person in accordance with the Rules) containing information on the decision made by the Exchange in accordance with the Rules, including the registration number of the issue (additional issue) of securities and/or the exchange-registered bond program (if any registration number was assigned to it) and the date the Exchange made the decision on registration, signed with the electronic signature of an authorized official in accordance with the Electronic Communication Procedures approved by the Exchange and disclosed on the Exchange's website.

15.1.2.1. in the IIM Sector and IIM-Prime Segment;

15.1.2.2. simultaneously in the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector and the following sectors/segments: the IIM Sector, IIM-Prime Segment, or the Growth Sector.

15.1.3. The Exchange decides to include securities in the IIM-Prime Segment or IIM Sector in parallel with a decision on delisting securities from the IIM-Prime Segment or IIM Sector respectively (in the event that as of the date of decision-making securities are listed in the respective Sector/Segment).

15.1.4. The Exchange decides to include securities in the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector in parallel with a decision on delisting such securities from the IIM Sector, IIM-Prime Sector, the Growth Sector (in the event that as of the date of decision-making securities are listed in the respective Sector/Segment).

Article 15.2. Specific Rules Governing Inclusion of Securities in IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment (Maintaining Listing and Delisting of Securities)

15.2.1. The following securities may be included in the IIM Sector/ IIM-Prime Segment provided that the following requirements are met:

15.2.1.1. For the IIM Sector: securities of corporate issuers, Exchange-registered bonds, investment units of unit investment funds, securities of foreign issuers provided that the requirements set out in Clause 3.1 Annex 3 to these Rules and Article 15.1 of the Rules are complied with.

15.2.1.2. For the IIM-Prime Segment: securities of corporate issuers, Exchange-registered bonds, shares and depositary receipts on shares of foreign issuers, provided that the requirements set out in Clause 3.2 Annex 3 to these Rules and Article 15.1 of the Rules are complied with.

15.2.2. The securities are eligible for the IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment after they are delisted from the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector, provided that there is such a recommendation from the Expert Council. The decision to include the securities in the IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment shall be made by the Exchange on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion:

15.2.3. The decision to include or deny inclusion of securities in IIM Sector / IIM-Prime Segment shall be made by the Exchange on the basis of an expert opinion of the Listing Department a letter to be filed by the Entity with the Exchange, within 5 working days from the date of receiving the letter and a complete set of documents according to Clause 3.3 of Annex 3 to these Rules

The decision to include the securities in the IIM Sector/IIM Prime Segment shall be made by the Exchange:

- 1) in relation to securities with the trading start date determined – simultaneously with making appropriate changes to the Exchange Trading System;
- 2) in relation to securities with the trading start date non-determined – with the Exchange's decision on the trading start date to be determined in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 8 of these Rules, with appropriate amendments to the Exchange Trading System made consequently.

The Exchange shall review the letter and the set of documents and make the decision in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 7 of these Rules, with due regard to the specific rules set out in this Article, except as provided herein.

When the securities listed in the IIM Sector meet the IIM Sector eligibility requirements provided for in Clause 3.2 in Annex 3 to the Rules, the Exchange shall have the right to change the listing for such securities to IIM-Prime Segment without receiving the letter and documents from the Entity in accordance with procedure described herein.

Seeking to obtain an expert opinion (recommendation) on the matter of whether the Entity conforms to the requirements (criteria) referred to in Sub-clause 2 Clause 3.1.1 / Sub-clause 2 Clause 3.1.3 of Annex 3 to these Rules (hereinafter, the expert opinion), the Exchange shall turn to the IIM Expert Council. In this event, the decision to include securities in IIM Sector / IIM-Prime Segment shall be made with due regard to the expert opinion issued by the IIM Expert Council.

Not later than 1 trading day following that of the Exchange's decision to include the securities in IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decision made;
- disclose the information on the decision made via the website of the Exchange.

15.2.4. If it is found that the Entity and/or the security do not conform to the requirements in Clause 15.2.1 and Clause 15.2.2 herein, the Exchange shall make the decision to deny inclusion in the IIM Sector / IIM-Prime Segment and shall issue a reasoned notice of such denial to the Entity.

The Exchange may deny inclusion in the IIM Sector / IIM-Prime Segment on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion, without giving any reason therefor. A notice of the decision made shall be given to the Entity within three working days after the decision date.

15.2.5. The Exchange shall control conformity to requirements to securities maintenance in the IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment as referred to in Clause 3.1/3.2 Annex 3 to these Rules, on a quarterly basis (unless provided otherwise).

If the Exchange becomes aware of any violation of such maintenance requirements, the Exchange may set a deadline for remedying such violation.

15.2.6. The Exchange may decide to exclude securities from the IIM Sector / IIM-Prime Segment in the following circumstances:

- 1) it receives a letter from the Entity requesting exclusion of the securities from the IIM Sector / IIM-Prime Segment;
- 2) the security or the Entity do not conform to the requirements for securities maintenance in the IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment as referred to in Clause 3.1/3.2 Annex 3 to these Rules;
- 3) the Entity fails to remedy any violations, identified by the Exchange, of the requirements for securities maintenance in the IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment as referred to in Clause 3.1/3.2 Annex 3 to these Rules, by the deadline prescribed by the Exchange;
- 4) subject to the IIM Expert Council expert opinion (recommendation) if there exists an unremedied, by the Entity, material violation of the information disclosure requirement, depending on the systematic nature of such violations, in the manner described in Article 20 of these Rules;
- 5) securities are listed in the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector;
- 6) the Entity does not provide information according to Clause 3.3. In Annex 3 to the Rules for the purpose of expert opinion (recommendation) of the Except Council on the IIM;
- 7) in other circumstances, provided that a respective (favourable) opinion is issued by the IIM Expert Council. At the same time, the Exchange's inquiry with the IIM Expert Council shall describe the reasons why it is appropriate to exclude the securities from the IIM Sector/ IIM-Prime Segment.

The decision to exclude the securities from the RII Sector/RII-Prime Segment shall be made by the Exchange on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion. The Exchange may deny inclusion of bonds in the IIM Sector / IIM-Prime Segment on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion, without giving any reason therefor.

Following the decision to exclude the securities from the RII Sector/RII-Prime Segment, appropriate amendments to the Exchange Trading System shall be made.

15.2.7. Not later than one trading day following that of the Exchange's decision to exclude the securities from the RII Sector/RII-Prime Segment, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decision made;
- disclose the information on the decision made via the website of the Exchange.

Article 15.3. Specific rules governing inclusion of securities in the Growth Sector (maintaining the listing of, and delisting of securities).

15.3.1. The following securities may be included in the Growth Sector provided that the following requirements are met:

15.3.1.1. shares, bonds, including exchange-regulated bonds of Russian issuers, and investment units of unit investment funds, subject to compliance with the requirements set out in Clause 3.4 Annex 3 to these Rules and requirements specified in Article 15.1 of the Rules.

15.3.2. The decision to include or deny inclusion of securities in the Growth Sector shall be made by Moscow Exchange on the basis of expert opinion of the Listing Department and a letter to be filed by the Entity with Moscow Exchange, within 5 working days from the date of receiving the letter and a complete set of documents referred to in Clause 3.5 Annex 3 to these Rules. In this case, a decision on inclusion in the Growth Sector shall not be taken before a decision on including securities in the List upon considering the Application on inclusion in the List is taken.

Moscow Exchange shall review the letter and the set of documents, and change time limits for making a relevant decision in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 7 of these Rules, with due regard to the specific rules set out in this Article.

Not later than 1 trading day following that of Moscow Exchange's decision to include the securities in the Growth Sector, Moscow Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decision made;
- disclose the information on such decision on the Moscow Exchange website.

15.3.3. If either the Entity and/or the security are found to be non-compliant with requirements and conditions specified in Clause 15.3.1 of these Article, Moscow Exchange shall make the decision to deny inclusion in the Growth Sector and shall issue a reasoned notice of such denial to the Entity and sends it to the Issuer.

Moscow Exchange may deny inclusion in the Growth Sector on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion, without giving any reason therefor.

A notice of the decision made shall be given to the Entity within 3 working days after the decision date.

15.3.4. Moscow Exchange shall monitor compliance with the Growth Sector securities maintenance requirements referred to in Clause 3.4 Annex 3 to these Rules, on a quarterly basis (except where different monitoring dates are prescribed by the above-mentioned Clause).

If Moscow Exchange becomes aware of any violation of such maintenance requirements, Moscow Exchange may set a deadline for remedying such violation.

15.3.5. Moscow Exchange may decide to exclude securities from the Growth Sector under the following circumstances:

- 1) it receives a letter from the Entity requesting exclusion of the securities from the Growth Sector;
- 2) the security and/or the Entity do not conform to the requirements for securities maintenance as referred to in Clause 3.4 Annex 3 to these Rules;

- 3) the Entity fails to remedy any violations, identified by Moscow Exchange, of the requirements for securities maintenance as referred to in Clause 3.4 Annex 3 to these Rules, by the deadline prescribed by Moscow Exchange;
- 4) the issuer's default related to any issues of the bonds included in the List;
- 5) exclusion of securities into the Increased Investment Risk Companies;
- 6) in other circumstances (such as occurrence of events/grounds for exclusion) referred to in Articles 21, 23, and Clauses 18.11 and 18.12 of Article 18 of these Rules.

The decision to exclude securities from the Growth Sector shall be made by the Exchange on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion. The Exchange may exclude securities from the Growth Sector on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion, without giving any reason therefor.

15.3.6. Not later than 1 trading day following that of Moscow Exchange's decision to exclude the securities from the Growth Sector, Moscow Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decision made;
- make announcement of such decision on the Moscow Exchange website.

Article 15.4 Specific rules governing inclusion of bonds in the Segments of the Sustainability Sector (maintaining the listing of, and delisting of bonds).

15.4.1. The following securities are eligible for the Sustainability Sector (further referred to in this Article as the Segments of the Sector), subject to compliance with the following requirements:

- 15.4.1.1. Russian and foreign bonds, including exchange-registered bonds are eligible for the inclusion provided that requirements set out in Clause 3.6-3.7 in Annex 3 and requirements in Article 15.1 of these Rules are met;
- 15.4.1.2. Subfederal and municipal bonds are eligible for the inclusion, provided that requirements set out in Clause 3.6-3.7 in Annex 3 and requirements in Article 15.1 of these Rules are met.

15.4.2. The decision to include or deny inclusion of securities in the Segments of the Sector shall be made by the Moscow Exchange on the basis of and expert opinion of the Listing Department and a letter to be filed by the Entity with the Moscow Exchange, within 5 working days from the date of receiving the letter and a complete set of documents referred to in Clause 3.7 Annex 3 to these Rules. A decision on inclusion in the Segments of the Sector shall not be taken before a decision on including bonds in the List upon considering the Application on inclusion in the List is taken.

For the purposes of issuing its expert opinion, the Listing Department shall consider any official documents and notices received by the Exchange, any information disclosed or provided by the Entity, any announcements posted on the websites of competent (regulatory) government authorities and organisations (self-regulated organisations, the settlement depository, rating agencies, organisations specializing in the expertise of ecological and social projects etc.), and may further take into account any information obtained from the mass media, as well as any other information received by the Exchange.

The procedure and order of reviewing the letter and the set of documents and the order of changing the terms for the Exchange to make a corresponding decision are similar to the procedure referred to in Article 7 of these Rules, with due regard to the specific rules set out in this Article.

Not later than 1 trading day following that of Moscow Exchange's decision to include the securities in the Segments of the Sector, the Moscow Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decision made;
- disclose the information on such decision on the Moscow Exchange website.

15.4.3. In case of non-compliance of the Entity and/or security with the requirements and conditions set out in in Article 15.1 and Clause 15.4.1. of this Article, the Exchange shall make the decision to deny inclusion in the Segments of the Sector and shall provide the Entity with a reasoned notice of such denial. The Moscow Exchange may deny inclusion in the Segments of the Sector on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion, without giving any reason therefor.

A notice of the decision made shall be given to the Entity within 3 working days after the decision date.

15.4.4. The Moscow Exchange shall monitor compliance with the requirements referred to in Clause 3.6 Annex 3 to these Rules for maintaining the bonds included in the Segments of the Sector within the terms provided for the relevant requirements. If Moscow Exchange becomes aware of any violation of such maintenance requirements, the Moscow Exchange may set a deadline for remedying such violation.

15.4.5. The Moscow Exchange may decide to exclude bonds from the Segments of the Sector under the following circumstances:

1) it receives a letter from the Entity requesting exclusion of the bonds from the Segment of the Sector;

2) the bond or the Entity do not conform to the requirements for bonds maintenance in the Segment of the Sector as referred to in Clause 3.6.2 Annex 3 to these Rules;

3) the Entity fails to remedy any violations identified by the Moscow Exchange of the requirements for bonds maintenance in the Segment of the Sector as referred to in Clause 3.6 Annex 3 to these Rules, by the deadline prescribed by the Moscow Exchange;

4) the report (document) drawn up by the Entity or by the Prescribed Legal Entity, in accordance with the requirements of paragraph 3.6.2 of Annex 3 to the Rules, or in the issuer's report for the 12-month period, or in any additional information disclosed by bond issuers in the Segment of the Growth Sector in accordance with the requirements of paragraph 3.6.2 of Annex 3 to the Rules, or the document of independent external assessment findings include information on violation of requirements listed in Clause 3.6.1 of Annex 3 to the Rules regarding the proper (intended) use of funds received from the bonds placement, or an equivalent amount of funds (hereinafter referred to as "funds received from the bond placement") and/or regarding compliance of the project for which the funds received from the bonds placement are (will be) used to finance (refinance) with the internationally recognised and (or) Russian environmental and (or) green/social funding and (or) sustainability principles and standards and (or) documents required by the Securities Issuance Standards³ (for bonds included in the Sustainability Segment);

5) the report (document) drawn up by the Entity, and/or in the issuer's report for the 12-month period, or in any additional details disclosed by bond issuers, and/or the decision made by the bodies (officials, inter-departmental commissions) include information on violation of requirements listed in Clause 3.6.1 of Annex 3 to the Rules regarding the proper (targeted) use of funds received from the bonds placement and/or regarding compliance of the project for which the funds received from the bonds placement are (will be) used to finance (refinance) with the tasks and results of one of the national/federal projects, or in the document outlining the verification of the issue (program) of bonds with adaptation project criteria (taxonomy) (for bonds listed in the National and Adaptation Project Segment);

6) the report (document) drawn up by the issuer of subfederal and municipal bonds, and (or) the document of independent external assessment findings include information that internationally recognised and (or) Russian principles and standards of environmental and/or green/social finance and/or sustainability have been breached by the project to be financed and/or refinanced with the funds received from the bond issue;

7) amendments to the bonds issue decision, the bond program, the bond prospectus, and/or the document outlining the terms of the bond offering, intended to remove any additional identification of the bond issue and/or bond program using the terms "green bonds", "adaptation bonds", "social bonds", or "sustainability bonds";

8) removal of bonds from the list of sustainable financial instruments published on the VEB.RF methodological centre's webpage;

9) in other circumstances (such as occurrence of events/grounds for exclusion) referred to in Articles 21, 23, and Clauses 18.11 and 18.12 Article 18 of these Rules.

15.4.6. The Exchange shall take a decision on delisting bonds from the Sectoral Segments if there are amendments made to the decision on issue (additional issue) of bonds/ to the conditions of issue of bonds and/or the prospectus of foreign issuer's securities which change the target nature of the issue intended for financing (refinancing) of projects specified in Sub-clause 1.1 and 2.1. Clause 3.6.1. of Annex 3 to the Rules.

15.4.7. The Exchange takes decisions on excluding securities from the Segment based on the expert opinion of the Listing Department. The Exchange may deny inclusion in the Segment of the Sector on the basis of the Listing Department expert opinion, without giving any reason therefor.

15.4.8. Not later than 1 trading day following that of the Moscow Exchange's decision to exclude the bonds from the Segment of the Sector, the Moscow Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decision made;
- make announcement of such decision on the Moscow Exchange website.

Article 15.5 Specific Rules Governing Securities Inclusion in (Exclusion from) the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector

15.5.1. The Exchange may take the decision to include securities (being) included in Level Three in the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector (hereinafter – the Sector) without receiving a respective application (letter) from the Applicant, but on the basis of the Listing Department's expert opinion in following cases:

- 1) Securities/the Entity meet the criteria for inclusion of securities in the Sector;
- 2) existence of an unresolved material breach regarding information disclosure by the Entity;
- 3) the decision is taken in line with the procedure stipulated in Clause 21.4.9 or 21.4.10 of the Regulation or if the Entity was subjected to rehabilitation, and temporary administration is assigned;
- 4) measures were applied to the Entity by competent (regulatory) government bodies for any violation of the laws of the Russian Federation on securities, the laws of the Russian Federation on investment funds, the laws of the Russian Federation on mortgage-based securities, in particular, if the Bank of Russia revoked (cancelled) the license for the respective line of business;
- 5) the Exchange receives the Expert Council's recommendation to include securities in the Sector;
- 6) in otherwise (in occurrence of events/grounds for exclusion) as referred to in Articles 21, 23 and Clauses 18.11 and 18.12 of Article 18.

Criteria for inclusion of securities in the Sector shall be approved by the Exchange. The above document shall not be provided or disclosed on the Moscow Exchange website, except where the laws of the Russian Federation stipulate otherwise or where directly set forth in the document.

15.5.2. Not later than 1 trading day following that when the Exchange made the decision to include the security in the Sector, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity on the decision taken;
- disclose the respective information via the website of the Exchange.

15.5.3. The Exchange may address the Expert Council on Listing to receive recommendation on including/excluding the securities in/from the Sector.

15.5.4. When including/keeping securities in the Sector the Exchange may resolve on limitation of allowable trade mode / cancellation of such a limitation with regard to such securities, in accordance with the Rules for Trading on Equity & Bond Market of the Moscow Exchange.

15.5.5. Upon the results of consideration of the Company's written address, the Exchange may decide to exclude securities from the Sector on the basis of an expert opinion of the Listing Department in the following circumstances:

- 1) the Exchange receives recommendations from the Expert Council on Listing to exclude securities from the Sector;

3) Outstanding breach of information disclosure requirements by the Company after inclusion of the securities in the Sector.

15.5.8. Not later than one trading day following that when the Exchange made the decision to exclude the security from the Sector, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity on the decision taken;

- disclose the respective information via the website of the Exchange.

SECTION 3. CHANGING SECURITIES LISTING LEVEL

Article 16. Procedure for Changing Securities Listing Level

16.1. The following shall constitute grounds for the making, by the Exchange, of the decision to change the listing level:

- the Application seeking change in the listing level, with an indication to the List section (level of listing) in which the securities are included, and the List section to which the securities are to be moved, filed by the Applicant with the Exchange. The Application shall be accompanied by the documents in accordance with the list provided in Annex 1 to these Rules (depending on the List section and the kind/type/category of the security in relation to which the Application is filed);

- the Listing Department expert opinion containing an explanation why such change in the listing level is appropriate, drafted in accordance with the requirements of Article 22 of these Rules.

16.2. The listing level change shall be effected by the Exchange by making a decision to move the securities from one List section (level of listing) to another List section (level of listing), namely:

- 1) securities transfer from Level Three to Level One or Two (hereinafter, listing level upgrade);
- 2) securities transfer from Level Two to Level One (hereinafter, listing level upgrade);
- 3) securities transfer from Level One to Level Two (hereinafter, listing level downgrade);
- 4) securities transfer from Level One or Two to Level Three (hereinafter, listing level downgrade).

16.3. The decision to change the listing level of a security shall be made by the Exchange provided that such security and the Entity conform to the requirements applicable to the inclusion of securities in the respective List section to which such securities are to be moved.

16.4. A listing level upgrade or downgrade decision shall be made by the Exchange in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 7 or Article 22 of these Rules, with due regards to the specific provisions of Article 10.

16.5. A decision to change the listing level shall be made by the Exchange concurrently with the decision to effect appropriate amendments to the Exchange Trading System.

16.6. The Exchange shall make a decision to downgrade the listing level in the following circumstances:

- 1) The Entity filed an Application for a listing level downgrade;
- 2) the Exchange found grounds for the exclusion of securities from Level One or Two;

3) the Entity failed to remedy a violation by the deadline prescribed by the Exchange.

16.7. If following the expiry of three months after the completion of placement and (or) sale of securities included in Level One or Level Two in accordance with the terms and conditions referred to in Article 10 of these Rules, the share of the issuer's free float falls below the FF threshold set in Sub-Clause 1 Clause 2.21 Annex 2 to these Rules, the Exchange shall make the decision to downgrade the listing level of such securities as follows:

- from Level One to Level Two, provided that the requirement set out in Sub-Clause 1 Clause 2.21 Annex 2 to the Rules for Level Two is complied with; or
- to Level Three.

16.8. Within one trading day following that when the decision to change the listing level was made by the Exchange, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decision made;
- disclose the information on the decision made via the website of the Exchange.

In its decision to change the listing level, the Exchange may set a listing level change date different from the date of such decision, as long as this is not contrary to the Bank of Russia regulations.

- document (copy) with the results of the independent external assessment referred to in item 1.1 and *item 2.1 of the Table in Clause 3.6.1, Annex 3.

Disclose the List and the Security Information File via the website of the Exchange pursuant to these Rules.

18.1.4. Disclose via Exchange's website a document with securities details, which is updated every month within 15 working days of the end of the calendar month (when admitting securities of foreign exchange-traded funds to trading on the Exchange).

The said document shall meet the following requirements:

- 1) shall be produced in Russian language;
- 2) shall be produced as of the last working data of a calendar month;
- 3) shall contain:
 - information on persons obligated in relation to securities of a foreign exchange-traded fund;
 - description of a foreign exchange-traded fund investment strategy and risks associated with acquisition of foreign exchange-traded funds;
 - information on investment performance of assets of a foreign exchange-traded fund, indicating that past investment performance does not determine future returns;
 - information on fees of a foreign exchange-traded fund.

The Exchange discloses the information mentioned above as follows:

- 1) as a document (file), or
- 2) by providing on its website a link to the website page containing the information referred to in this Clause:
 - about the person obligated in relation to securities of a foreign exchange-traded fund (other persons authorised by the obligated person),
 - about international exchanges where securities of an ETF are listed.

18.1.5. Provide the environment necessary for the trading in securities listed in the course of their placement and/or circulation;

18.1.6. Keep confidential information received from the Entity, which includes information about the Entity or securities that is not in the public domain (i.e. obtained from the media, periodical reports and information materials published by the Entity and the use of which by third parties could cause damage to the Entity).

This is not applicable if:

- the Exchange transfers documents and information regarding the Organization to the companies of Moscow Exchange Group in accordance with Clause 17.3.2 of the Rules,

- the Exchange's use of documents and information in order to fulfill the obligations stipulated by regulatory legal acts of the Russian Federation, as well as the Listing Rules,
- The transfer of documents and information by the Exchange, provided that the obligation to disclose information is stipulated by law or a request from a government body, in particular, upon a written request of the Bank of Russia, courts, investigative authorities, tax authorities and other competent authorities.

18.7.15. Other information on a security and the Entity.

The security information file shall provide links to every security information file of the Entity.

Changes to the Security Information File shall be made in connection with changes in the parameters of the securities included in the List and/or the information contained in the relevant Security Information File, in connection with decisions made by the Exchange and other procedures performed by the Exchange as envisaged by these Rules.

Upon any change in the information of securities and the Entity and/or securities parameters included in the List/Security Information File, changes to the List shall be affected, among other things, on the basis of:

- notice/information given by the Clearing House and/or the Settlement Depositary;
- notification, documents and information received from (disclosed by) the Entity;
- performance, by the Exchange, of the procedures as envisaged by these Rules or other decisions of the Exchange.

Where necessary, the relevant changes shall be made to the Trading System of the Exchange.

18.8. The Exchange shall, commencing from the start date of trading in Level One or Level Two securities, disclose, on a quarterly basis, via the website of the Exchange, whether or not such securities meet the requirements of the Bank of Russia regulations and these Rules, to be met by securities in order to qualify for Level One or Level Two.

Such information shall be disclosed within 10 working days at the end of the reporting period, and as regards issuers compliance (noncompliance) with the requirements to the issuer's corporate governance, set out in the Bank of Russia regulations and these Rules, within 35 working days, and shall remain available for not less than six months from the date of posting.

18.9. If the Bank of Russia makes an inquiry about a security in relation to which the Exchange received an Application for its inclusion in the List, the Exchange shall submit to the Bank of Russia, within the time frame indicated in such inquiry, a report on whether or not the security (underlying security) and the Entity comply with the requirements of the laws of the Russian Federation, the Bank of Russia regulations and these Rules.

The Exchange shall concurrently obtain (if not already available) and file with the Bank of Russia a copy of the recommendations intended for the Exchange and received from the Exchange Council on Listing regarding the inclusion of such security in Level One, Two or Three

If such an inquiry is received from the Bank of Russia in relation to a listed security, the Exchange shall, within one month, obtain and file with the Bank of Russia recommendations from the Exchange Council on Listing, intended for the Exchange, as to whether the security should be left in Level One, Two or Three, or delisted (excluded from Level One, Two, or Three).

18.10. The Exchange shall notify the Bank of Russia following the procedure established by the regulations of the Bank of Russia by way of sending a notice at the onset of the following events:

18.10.1. the performance of registration actions by the Exchange as provided for by Article 11.1 of the Rules;

18.10.2. the receipt by the Exchange of the following notices:

- notice containing information on the representative of the bonds owner;

- notice of entering amendments to the securities prospectus;
- notice of having accomplished reorganization of the bond issuer and its substitution by the legal successor, with the exception of the bond issuer being a lending institution, and its substitution by the legal successor;
- notice of preparation of securities prospectus (in case of preparation of securities prospectus after registration of their issue (bond program))

The notice of the onset of the said events shall be sent by the Exchange to the Bank of Russia no later than the following working day from the day of the performance of the respective action by the Stock Exchange as provided for by Sub-Clause 18.10.1 of this Clause, or from the day of the notice receipt as provided for by Sub-Clause 18.10.2 of this Clause.

18.11. The Exchange may, for the purposes of procedures provided for by the Rules and this Clause, declare default (technical default) of the Issuer in the following situations:

- expiry of the term established by the law in case of the absence of notices disclosed by the issuer, which contain information on incomes paid, or other payments under the issue-grade securities of the Issuer, or on the Issuer's default on obligations before the owners of this issuer's issue-grade securities;

- available information/documents on default occurrence or the presence of other circumstances (events) which indicate such an occurrence and/or may result in default occurrence, received from or disclosed by the issuer of overseas securities (issuer of the represented securities) and/or the Prescribed Legal Entity, competent (regulating) public authorities and organizations (self-regulatory organizations, depository (settlement depository), overseas stock exchange).

Default (technical default) shall be declared by the Exchange by way of preparing an expert opinion by the Listing Department.

In case of non-performance of the issuer's obligations (issuer's default), as well as in case of the Exchange declaring default (technical default occurrence) in accordance with this Clause, the Exchange may pass a resolution on restricting the list of allowable trade regimes in relation to this issue of bonds, all or some issues of bonds of the respective issuer in compliance with the Trading Rules on the Equity & Bond Market of the Moscow Exchange.

Restrictions on the list of allowable trade regimes in compliance with Trading Rules on the Equity & Bond Market of the Moscow Exchange may be removed under the bonds of the issuer committing a default, including also in case of the Exchange declaring the default occurrence in accordance with this Clause, on the occurrence of the following events:

1) performance by the Issuer of earlier non-performed/not entirely performed obligations under earlier committed default(-s) (payment of the regular interest income, repayment of the offer, redemption), for all issues of bonds included on the List, subject to disclosure by the issuer of a respective corporate action notice following the terms and procedures established by the Russian Federation laws on securities or representation/disclosure of respective information by the issuer of overseas securities (the issuer of the securities represented or the overseas stock exchange);

2) restructuring of at least 75% of the debt under each of the issuer's issue of outstanding bonds, the issues of which are included in the List and in regards to which default was committed, subject to the issuer's disclosure of a respective corporate action notice following the terms and procedures established by Russian Federation laws on securities (for the purposes of the Rules, debt restructuring means the termination of liabilities under bonds in relation to which default was committed by the issuer, by way of replacement of these liabilities with other debt liabilities) or representation/disclosure of respective information by the issuer of overseas securities (the issuer of the securities represented or the overseas stock exchange);

3) expiry of at least 1 year from the date of the latest fact of the issuer's default under the issues of bonds included in the List (payment of the regular interest income, repayment of the offer, redemption), for issues of the issuer's bonds in relation to which no default was committed, as well as for the issue of bonds listed after the date of the latest default;

4) concluding an amicable agreement(-s) approved by the court of arbitration/general jurisdiction in relation to at least 75% of the debt for each issue of the Issuer's outstanding bonds, the issues of which are included in the List and in relation to which default was committed (taking into account the specific features established by the proper law of the issuer of the overseas securities), subject to the issuer's disclosure of a respective corporate action notice following the terms and procedures established by Russian Federation laws on securities or representation/disclosure of respective information by the issuer of the overseas securities (the issuer of the securities represented or the overseas stock exchange);

5) disclosure by the issuer of a notice containing information on incomes paid or other payments under issue-grade securities in its entirety (in case of the Exchange declaring a default in accordance with this Clause) following the terms and procedures established by Russian Federation laws on securities or the presentation/disclosure of respective information by the issuer of the overseas securities (the issuer of the securities represented or the overseas stock exchange), competent (regulating) public authorities, overseas stock exchange, self-regulatory organizations, depository (settlement depository);

6) in case the general meeting of owners of securities on which the issue default was committed by the issuer passes a resolution on approval of entering amendments to the issuing documents, including the circulating period of securities, number of coupon periods, interest rates, as well as other terms and conditions;

7) the entering into an agreement between the issuer and the owners of bonds or representatives of the owners of the bonds on which issue default was committed by the issuer, which provides for an opportunity of debt restructuring.

18.12. The Exchange may decide to limit the permitted trading modes in relation to the securities of the Entity (or securities under the Entity's management), in accordance with the Trading Rules on the Equity & Bond Market of the Moscow Exchange, if:

- 1) a bankruptcy procedure was initiated (other than the receivership proceedings, or if the Entity was subjected to rehabilitation);
- 2) measures were applied to the Entity by competent (regulatory) government bodies for any violation of the laws of the Russian Federation, in particular, if the Bank of Russia revoked (cancelled) the license for the respective line of business;
- 3) other circumstances exist that may provide grounds for the Exchange to make decisions to suspend trading in the Entity's securities or to exclude the Entity's securities from (or retain them in) the List.

18.13. The Exchange shall have the right to publish on its website the information disclosure in the newsfeed of an accredited news agency, where the Exchange is connected to the respective notification service.

18.14. The Exchange shall have the right to consult and arrange meetings with the persons representing the Applicant, request for documents, and ask for explanations and information, whether orally or in writing.

18.15. The List of rating agencies and credit rating levels of an issuer, surety (guarantor) or issue of securities for the purpose of their use in listing and maintaining securities in Level One as prescribed in Annex 2 to the Rules, shall be defined by the internal document of the Moscow Exchange approved by the Exchange upon affirmation of the Supervisory Board and disclosed on the website of the Exchange.

18.16. The Exchange has the right to make a decision to restrict the circulation of securities of foreign issuers previously admitted to public circulation to circulation only among qualified investors in the following cases:

- on the basis of the received application of the Organization in respect of securities previously admitted to public circulation at the request of the Organization or
- on its own initiative in respect of securities previously admitted to public circulation on the initiative of the Exchange.

18.16.1. The Exchange decides to limit the trading in foreign issuers' securities previously admitted to the public market only among qualified investors in cases stipulated by regulatory legal acts of the Bank of Russia.

18.17. The average daily volume for trading in securities of foreign exchange-traded funds for three months under the Rules is calculated as follows (hereinafter in this Clause referred to as the Indicator):

- Indicator includes trades executed during main trading in the trading modes where market makers execute or may execute their contractual market maker obligations to maintain prices, demand, offers and (or) volumes of trading for securities of exchange-traded funds (except repo trades);
- Indicator is calculated as a ratio of quantity of securities under trades executed in relevant trading modes during the last 3 months preceding the calculation date or for the period from the start date of trading in securities on the Exchange to the trading day preceding the calculation date, if the said period does not exceed 3 months, and the weighted average price for the respective period, to the number of trading days in the said period;
- Indicator is calculated in Russian roubles;
- Indicator is calculated every trading day.

18.18. When the Exchange admits securities of foreign exchange-traded funds according to Clause 4.1 of Article 51.1 of the Federal Law On the Securities Market, the Exchange assists in redemption (repayment) of such securities in the following manner:

- when a person obligated in relation to securities of the foreign exchange-traded funds decides to redeem (repurchase) such securities or liquidation (termination) of a foreign exchange-traded fund, the Exchange ensures disclosure of information with regard to this corporate action publicly on the website of the Exchange.

SUBSECTION 4.3. SECURITIES MAINTENANCE PROCEDURES. CONTROL AND MONITORING

Article 19. Maintenance of Securities. Control and Monitoring

19.1. The Exchange shall perform the securities maintenance procedure which shall include monitoring and control of conformity of the listed securities and Entities with the requirements of the securities law of the Russian Federation and of these Rules, in particular, Article 5 of these Rules, as well as the absence of grounds for the delisting, in particular, for the exclusion from Level One and Two.

19.2. Maintenance of a listed security shall be performed by the Exchange on a quarterly basis (with the exception of certain monitoring and control procedures which shall be performed continuously) from the date of the security inclusion in the respective section of the List.

19.3. In respect of securities the Exchange shall perform maintenance as follows:

- 1) The monitoring and control that there do not exist grounds for security exclusion from Level One or Level Two, as referred to in Annex 2 to these Rules, shall be performed on the basis of the information and documents filed by the Entity as referred to in Annex 1 to these Rules, and on the basis of information originating from (generated on) the Exchange.
- 2) For the purposes of monitoring and control of the completeness and timely filing, by the Entity, of the information and documents referred to in Annex 1 to these Rules, the Exchange may use information obtained from the mass media, or any other information that may come in the Exchange's possession.
- 3) In the course of the maintenance procedure, the Exchange may make an inquiry with the Entity:
 - for the submission of further information if any controversial or incomplete data are found in the compliance information (evidence of there being no grounds for delisting) filed by the Entity with the Exchange.
 - for the submission of further information if any discrepancies are identified in the content or timing of disclosure of the Entity's compliance with the requirements (evidence of there being no grounds for delisting), published in the mass media and provided to the Exchange;
 - with a request to conduct consultations and meetings with the Entity representatives.

19.4. By way of exercising control, the Exchange may conduct inspections, in particular, as requested by the Bank of Russia, and require that the Entity shall provide any necessary documents, explanations, or information, in writing or verbally.

Article 20. Monitoring of Information Disclosure Requirements

20.1. The Exchange shall monitor disclosure of information, in particular, disclosure (publishing) of financial statements by the Entity or the surety (guarantor), or of any other information as referred to in these Rules, including that needed for the Entity's compliance with the information disclosure requirements applicable to the inclusion of securities in Level One or Level Two (hereinafter, the information disclosure requirements) in relation to listed securities, in accordance with the laws of the Russian Federation, other statutes and regulations, these Rules and the Exchange internal documents listed in the Rules.

20.2. If the Exchange finds that the Entity and/or its surety (guarantor) violated the information disclosure requirements, the Exchange shall within two trading days from that when such violation was found, determine the materiality of such violation, and (if the respective decision is made), set the deadline by which such information must be disclosed (amended) by the Entity and/or the surety (guarantor).

The Exchange shall determine the materiality of the information disclosure requirement violation, and deadline for such disclosure (or amendment) by means of an expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

In this event, the date of such violation shall be determined by the Exchange in accordance with the time frames prescribed for such disclosure, and as regards disclosure of material facts or where incomplete (or inaccurate) information was provided, from the day on which the Exchange became or should have become aware of such information disclosure requirement violation. The Exchange shall determine violation of the legal requirement to disclose information insofar as it relates to the provision of incomplete (inaccurate) information, on the basis of information received by the Exchange from the third parties, or by means of a sample-based review.

The Exchange shall monitor compliance with information disclosure requirements listed in the Table in Sub-Clause 5 Clause 2.1.1 of Annex 2 thereof on a quarterly basis

20.3. Not later than on the trading day following that when the Exchange determined materiality of the violation, the Exchange shall:

- disclose such material violation, by the Entity and/or the surety (guarantor), of information disclosure requirements, with a deadline, set by the Exchange, by which such information must be disclosed (amended) by the Entity, via the website of the Exchange;
- give notice of such material violation of information disclosure requirements to the Entity and/or the surety (guarantor), with a deadline, set by the Exchange, by which such information must be disclosed (amended), as well as give notice of the disclosure of such information, via the website of the Exchange.

Such notice shall be delivered by the Exchange to the persons authorised by the Entity to receive notices of any information disclosure violations identified via electronic means of communication.

20.4. If by the expiration of the deadline set by the Exchange in accordance with Clause 20.2 of this Article the information was not disclosed (or amended) by the Entity and/or the surety (guarantor), the Exchange shall, considering the materiality and systemic nature of the violation, decide to either:

- a) retain the securities on the List (in particular, in Level One or Level Two), or
- b) delist the securities (in particular, exclude from Level One or Level Two).

The decision to either delist securities or retain them on the List shall be made by the Exchange on the basis of an expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

The Exchange may report to the Bank of Russia any material violation that was not remedied by the deadline set by the Exchange.

If the Exchange resolves to retain the security on the List, the Exchange may by its decision limit the permitted trading modes in relation to the securities issued or granted by the Entity in accordance with the Trading Rules on Equity & Bond Market of the Moscow Exchange, exclude the securities from the IIM Sector/IIM-Prime Segment, or include the securities in the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector.

20.5. Within 1 trading day following that when the Exchange made the decision to either retain securities in, or exclude from, the List in accordance with this Article, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of such delisting of its securities;
- disclose the information on the decision made via the website of the Exchange.

20.6. The procedure for the determination by the Exchange of the materiality and systemic nature of information disclosure requirements violation and the deadline for the disclosure of the information on such material violation shall be approved by the Exchange. This document is not obliged to be presented as well as disclosed on the Moscow Exchange's website, except for the cases specified in the law of the Russian Federation.

20.7. The Exchange's decisions regarding the materiality and systemic nature of violations as referred to in this Article, shall be made by the Exchange with due regard to the provisions of Clause 7 Article 4 of these Rules.

20.8. Delisting of securities in the circumstances referred to in this Article, shall be effected within the time frame prescribed by the Exchange, which shall not be less than 1 month or more than 3 months from the relevant decision date.

Article 20. 1. Identification of Disclosure Restrictions by the Exchange. Disclosure and Discontinuation of Disclosure Restriction Events.

20.1.1 The Exchange shall identify the events of Disclosure Restrictions when monitoring compliance with disclosure requirements in accordance with Article 20 of these Rules. The date of identifying the event of Disclosure Restriction is the day following the end date of the monitoring period, as defined in the internal document of the Exchange.

When the issuer sends information about the existence and the use of the right to Disclosure restriction in accordance with the procedure established by clause 17.6 of Article 17 of these Rules, the date of Disclosure Restriction shall be the date on which the relevant information is received from the issuer.

20.1.2 The Exchange has the right to submit a request to the Bank of Russia no later than five business days from the date of Disclosure Restriction identification.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the date on which the Exchange identifies the event of Disclosure Restriction is the date on which the Exchange receives relevant information from the Bank of Russia, including information sent by the Bank of Russia on its own initiative.

20.1.3 The Exchange shall, within ten (10) business days from the date of Disclosure Restriction event identification, publish in the List details regarding such event in relation to each issue of the Issuer's securities, except in cases provided for in Clauses 20.1.5–20.1.6 of this Article.

Such disclosure shall be made by the Exchange based on the expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

20.1.4 The Exchange shall notify the Issuer of the Disclosure Restriction event no later than one (1) business day following the date on which such information is made available in the List.

Such notification shall be delivered by the Exchange via electronic means to the persons duly authorised by the Issuer to receive notifications regarding identified disclosure violations.

20.1.5 Information on the restriction of information disclosure is not disclosed by the Exchange in the List in relation to issue-grade securities if the issuer, or the corresponding issue of issue-grade securities, or the surety (guarantor) ensuring the fulfilment of obligations to issue securities (if applicable), at least two credit rating agencies have assigned a credit rating of at least A-(RU) / ruA- / A-.ru / A-|ru| from various credit rating agencies ACRA / Expert RA / NCR / NRA, rating at least , assigned by credit rating agencies in accordance with the methodologies for assigning non-credit ratings to shares.

20.1.6 Until 1 October 2026, the Exchange shall not publish information on Disclosure Restriction events in relation to shares (share issues) of Issuers included in the list of Russian commercial entities authorised to determine independently the scope and/or volume of information to be disclosed and/or provided, as approved by Russian Presidential Decree No. 903 dated 27 November 2023 "On the Temporary Procedure for Disclosure and Provision of Information by Certain Russian Commercial Entities".

20.1.7 In the event that securities of an Issuer are included in the List, and the Exchange had previously established, in connection with the inclusion of other securities of the same Issuer in the List or their trading on organised markets, a Disclosure Restriction and/or the cessation of compliance with the condition regarding the existence of two credit ratings as specified in Clause 20.1.5 of this Article, the Exchange shall publish information regarding such event from the date of inclusion of these securities in the List, except in the cases provided for in Clauses 20.1.5 to 20.1.6 of this Article.

20.1.8 Within ten (10) business days after the Exchange becomes aware, including based on information received from the Issuer in accordance with Clause 17.6 of Article 17 of the Rules, that the condition specified in 20.1.5 of this Article is no longer met, in respect of securities of an Issuer for whom a Disclosure Restriction event was previously identified pursuant to Clauses 20.1.1 and 20.1.2 of this Article, the Exchange shall publish on the List the information regarding such event in relation to each issue of the Issuer's securities, except in the case provided for in Clause 20.1.6 of this Article.

20.1.9 The Exchange shall discontinue publishing the information regarding the Disclosure Restriction in the List upon receipt of a written notification from the Issuer confirming the cessation of the Disclosure Restriction, and/or upon verification that the condition specified in paragraph 20.1.5 of this Article has been met.

20.1.10 Within five (5) business days after receiving the letter referred to in Clause 20.1.9 of this Article, the Exchange shall verify the facts set forth in such letter.

The Exchange may submit a request to the Central Bank of the Russian Federation to verify whether the Disclosure Restriction has ceased or not.

20.1.11 In the event that the condition specified in Clause 20.1.5 of this Article is met, the Exchange shall cease publishing in the List information regarding the Disclosure Restriction for the Issuer's securities in respect of which the condition provided for in paragraph 20.1.5 of this Article is met, provided that such condition has been met, within ten (10) business days after receiving the letter referred to in Clause 20.1.9 of this Article.

The Exchange ceases to disclose the specified information based on the expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

If the condition specified in Clause 20.1.5 of this Article is not confirmed, the Exchange shall notify the Issuer that there are no grounds to discontinue disclosing formation regarding the Issuer's Disclosure Restriction in the List.

Such notification shall be delivered by the Exchange via electronic means to the persons duly authorised by the Issuer to receive notifications regarding identified disclosure violations.

20.1.12 The Exchange shall discontinue publishing in the List any information relating to the Disclosure Restriction event in respect of all issues of the Issuer's securities within ten (10) business days after the date on which the cessation of Disclosure Restriction is identified – including based on information received from the Central Bank of the Russian Federation.

The Exchange ceases to disclose the specified information based on the expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

The Exchange shall notify the Issuer that no grounds exist to discontinue the public disclosure of the Disclosure Restriction event in the List, if such Disclosure Restriction cessation has not been verified by the Issuer – including based on information provided by the Central Bank of the Russian Federation.

Such notification shall be delivered by the Exchange via electronic means to the persons duly authorised by the Entity to receive notifications regarding identified disclosure violations.

20.1.13 After the public disclosure of the Disclosure Restriction event has been terminated in the List, the Exchange shall notify the Issuer thereof.

Such notification shall be delivered by the Exchange via electronic means to the persons duly authorised by the Issuer to receive notifications regarding identified disclosure violations.

The Exchange shall delist the securities no later than seven (7) trading days following the date on which the Exchange decides to remove such securities from the List, in the circumstances provided for herein.

- 21.4.12. If the Entity operations are terminated as the result of reorganisation or liquidation, except where the issuer of bonds is replaced, the Exchange shall make the decision to delist the securities within 5 trading days following that of the disclosure that the request seeking liquidation or reorganisation of the Entity was filed with the national register of legal entities or, in relation to a foreign legal entity, with the competent body of the foreign country.

If the decision to liquidate the Entity was made by the court, and as regards a foreign legal entity, a competent authority of the foreign country, the Exchange shall make the decision to delist such issuer's securities within two months following the day when the Exchange became or should have become aware that decision was made to liquidate such issuer.

The Exchange shall delist securities in a situation described in this Clause not later than three months after the respective decision made by the Exchange.

- 21.4.13. If grounds arise for the termination of a unit investment fund as prescribed by the Federal Law "On Investment Funds", the Exchange shall not later than the trading day following the day then the Exchange learned of should have learned of such grounds make either of the following decisions:

- a) to delist the investment units; or
- b) to suspend trading in such investment units in accordance with Article 23 of these Rules, and shall then make the decision to delist the securities not later than three months from the date of suspension of organised trading, and not before the date of exclusion mutual fund from the register of unit investment funds, if the specified exception of mutual fund occurred within three months from the date of suspension of organized trades.

- 21.4.14. If the Entity fails to comply with the requirements of the securities law, the investment funds law of the Russian Federation, the mortgage-backed securities law of the Russian Federation, or where a security does not conform to the requirements of the law of the Russian Federation, the Exchange shall, not later than one trading day after it became or should have become aware of such violation (non-conformance), determine whether or not such violation (non-conformance) is capable of being remedied, in the event that such violation (non-conformance) still exist on the said date:

21.4.14.1. If such violation (non-conformance) is capable of being remedied, the Exchange shall make one of the following decisions:

- a) to retain the securities on the List and set a deadline for remedying the violation (non-conformance) which shall not be longer than 6 months.
- b) to delist the securities, considering the materiality of the violation (non-conformance) and the systemic nature of such violations (non-conformances).

21.4.14.2. If the violation (non-conformance) is not capable of being remedied, or where such violation (non-conformance) is not remedied by the deadline prescribed by the Exchange, the Exchange shall make one of the following decisions:

- a) to retain the securities on the List, or
- b) to delist the securities.

The Exchange may decide to retain the securities on the List if the violation is not systematic and/or material.

Delisting of securities in accordance with this Clause shall be effected not less than one month and not later than three months from the date on which such decision to delist was made by the Exchange. This procedure shall apply except where these Rules provide for other consequences of a violation.

21.7. In events provided herein, the Exchange does not make decisions to terminate trading in securities. Termination of trading shall be executed by making appropriate changes to the Exchange's Trading System. The Exchange's decisions regarding the materiality and systemic nature of violations as referred to in this Article, shall be made by the Exchange with due regard to the provisions of Clause 4.7 Article 4 of these Rules.

21.8. Not later than 1 trading day following that of the Exchange's decision to delist the securities and (or) to set the date for the discontinuation of trading, the Exchange shall:

- notify the Entity of the decisions made;
- disclose the information on the decisions made via the website of the Exchange.

The Exchange shall disclose information on the retention of securities on the List via the website of the Exchange not later than on the trading day following that when the respective decision was made.

In connection with the disclosure of information on delisting of securities, in accordance with Clauses 21.4.1 and 21.4.5 of this Article, the Exchange shall also disclose the indication to the date on which the last day of trading in the respective securities falls.

The Exchange shall also notify the Bank of Russia and the Clearing House of such discontinuation of trading in securities by disclosing its decision regarding the date of such discontinuation of trading via the website of the Exchange not later than on the trading day following that when the respective decision was made, unless the Bank of Russia regulations provide otherwise.

The Exchange shall also notify the Clearing House of its decision setting the trading discontinuation date not later than on the trading day following that when the respective decision was made.

21.9. The Exchange may change the dates for the delisting of a security as set out in this Article, provided that new grounds for delisting arise in relation to those same securities that require different time frames for the delisting of such securities.

Article 22. Exclusion of security from Level One or Level Two. Retention of security on Level One or Level Two.

22.1. The decision to exclude a security from, or retain on, Level One or Level Two shall be made by the Exchange based on an expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

For the purposes of issuing its expert opinion, the Listing Department shall consider any official documents and notices received by the Exchange, any information disclosed or provided by the Entity, any announcements posted on the websites of competent (regulatory) government authorities and organisations (self-regulated organisations, the settlement depository, rating agencies, etc.), information obtained from the mass media, as well as any other information received by the Exchange.

For the purposes of considering whether a security should be excluded from, or retained on, Level One or Level Two, the following may be taken into account in addition to the grounds for exclusion as referred to in this Article:

- the issuer's financial position;
- the issuer's reputation and trustworthiness;
- potential investors' interest towards the security;
- any circumstances (facts) giving grounds to believe that the investors' rights and interests may have been violated;
- other material circumstances.

Exclusion of a security from Level One or Level Two shall be effected by means of:

- 1) a listing downgrade from Level One or Level Two to Level Three in the manner described in Article 16 of these Rules;
- 2) delisting the security and discontinuing trading in such security in the manner described in Article 21 of these Rules.

22.2. The following shall constitute grounds for the decision to exclude a security from Level One or Level Two (as applicable to the respective kind/type/category of security and/or Entity):

- 22.2.1. occurrence of any of the causes for the delisting of securities referred to in Article 21 of these Rules;
- 22.2.2. occurrence of any of the causes for the exclusion from Level One or Level Two referred to in Annex 2 to these Rules, and in Sub-Clause 22.3.6 of this Article;

- 22.2.11. a procedure applicable in a bankruptcy case (other than the receivership proceedings) is initiated in relation to the Entity (applies with due regard to Clause 22.8 of this Article).

22.3. The following specific rules and the procedure for their application shall apply as the Exchange reviews the issue of excluding the securities from Level One or Level Two:

22.3.1. In relation to shares of Russian issuers:

- 22.3.1.1. If corporate governance requirements referred to in Clauses 2.18 and 2.19 Annex 2 to these Rules in relation to Level One and Level Two are not complied with, in particular, the requirement regarding the number of independent directors on the issuer's board of directors, and such violation was the consequence of a situation where a person elected to serve as an independent director ceased to be one, or left the board of directors, provided that such violation remains unremedied not later than the next scheduled annual general shareholders' meeting, if such event was revealed before the adoption of the annual general shareholders' meeting agenda, the Exchange shall, upon the expiration of 1 month from the date of such meeting, exclude the securities from Level One or Level Two, respectively.
- 22.3.1.2. If the issuer of shares included in Level One or Level Two fails to comply with the corporate governance requirements referred to in Clauses 2.18 and 2.19 Annex 2 to these Rules, applicable for the inclusion of securities in Level One or Level Two, with the exception of the situation described in Sub-Clause 22.3.1.1 of this Clause, the Exchange shall, within 5 trading days following that when it became or should have become aware of such violation, prescribe a period of time for the issuer to remedy such violation which shall not be more than 6 months.

22.3.2. In relation to bonds of Russian issuers:

22.3.2.1. If changes are made to the decision to effect issue (additional issue) of bonds issued by the issuer which is a private partner, that change the intended purpose of the bond issuance, i.e. the financing of the partnership agreement, the Exchange shall, within five trading days from the day on which such changes take effect, exclude the securities from Level One or Level Two.

22.3.2.2. If the issuer of bonds fails to comply with the corporate governance requirements referred to in Clause 2.20 Annex 2 to these Rules, the Exchange shall, within five trading days following that when it became or should have become aware of such violation, prescribe a period of time for the issuer to remedy such violation which shall not be more than 6 months.

22.3.3. In relation to Russian Depositary Receipts:

Russian Depositary Receipts shall be excluded from Level One or Level Two based on the causes of such exclusion referred to in Clauses 2.1.2 or 2.2.2 Annex 2 to these Rules in respect of Level One and Level Two, respectively, which causes shall apply to underlying securities, subject to the specific rules governing compliance with the corporate governance requirements in relation to shares and bond respectively, and also upon the occurrence of a default by the Issuer (a Prescribed Legal Entity), as defined in Sub-clauses 22.3.1, 22.3.2.2, and 22.6 of this Article.

22.3.4. In relation to investment units:

22.3.4.1. Failure by market maker to perform the obligation related to transacting with investment units of an exchange traded mutual investment fund until the specified volume is reached, or fulfilment by the market maker of its obligations for the time less than the specified time period, or if the number of trading days per month when the market maker's obligations on investment units of an exchange traded fund are not performed exceeds three trading days per month according to the requirements allowed for in Clause 2.9, Annex 2 to the Rules, for Level One or Level Two, respectively, the Exchange, with account of the materiality and continuity of failure to meet the above requirements shall take one of the following decisions:

- 1) Keep on the securities at Level One or Level Two;
- 2) Remove the securities from Level One or Level Two.

22.3.4.2. The Exchange shall take the corresponding decision within 5 trading days after identification of the ground for removal based on the controlling results for the quarter when the above ground for removal has occurred.

The securities shall be excluded from Level One or Level Two within 7 trading days from that on which the respective decision was made by the Exchange.

22.3.5. In relation to foreign issuer's securities:

22.3.5.1. Foreign issuer's securities, subject to the listing criteria set forth in Clauses 2.15 and 2.16 of Annex 2 to the Rules, shall be excluded from Level One or Level Two upon the occurrence of any of the grounds for such exclusion provided for Level One or Level Two, respectively, in Clauses 2.1.2 or 2.2.2 Annex 2 to these Rules, applicable also to underlying securities, subject to the specific rules governing compliance with the corporate governance requirements in relation to shares and bonds, respectively, as well as in the event of a default of the issuer (Prescribed Legal Entity) set out in Clauses 22.3.1, 22.3.2.2 and 22.6, respectively, of this Article.

22.3.6. In relation to securities of a foreign exchange-traded investment fund:

22.3.6.1. If the market-makers of such fund fail to comply with requirements set out in Clause 2.17 in Annex 2 to these Rules in relation to inclusion of securities in Level One and Level Two, respectively, the Exchange shall, in accordance with decision on materiality and systemic nature of such violation taken pursuant to Clause 4.7 of these Rules, decides:

- 1) either to retain the securities on Level One or Level Two; or

2) to exclude the securities from Level One or Level Two.

The Exchange determines whether a breach of requirements for securities of a foreign exchange-traded fund be included in Level One or Level Two is serious and systemic in nature through seeking an expert opinion of the Listing Department.

22.3.6.2. The Exchange shall make the respective decision indicated in item 22.3.7.1 hereof within 5 trading days from the moment when it becomes aware that grounds for exclusion exist, as the result of quarterly control, which revealed grounds for exclusion.

The securities shall be excluded from Level One or Level Two within 7 trading days from that when the respective decision is made by the Exchange.

22.4. Based on the Experts opinion of the Listing Department and recommendations the Expert Council on Listing (if asked for such recommendations), the Exchange may decide on exclusion of securities from Level One or Level Two (a listing downgrade) without giving any reasons.

22.5. The specific rules and the procedure for their application referred to in Article 25 hereof shall apply as the Exchange reviews the issue of excluding the securities from Level One or Level Two.

22.6. If the issuer defaults on any listed bond issue, the Exchange shall exclude all bonds of such issuer from Level One or Level Two within 2 trading days from that of the issuer's default.

22.7. The Exchange may decide to downgrade listing from Level One or Level Two to Level Two or Level Three on the following grounds:

22.7.1. the Exchange receives recommendations from the Expert Council on Listing to exclude securities from Level One or Level Two (downgrading of listing);

22.7.2. securities/the Entity comply with requirements for listing securities in the Increased Investment Risk Companies Sector;

22.7.3. the Entity fails to perform any financial obligations owed to the Exchange under the listing service agreement(s);

22.7.4. a procedure applicable in a bankruptcy case (other than the receivership proceedings) is initiated in relation to the Prescribed Legal Entity. Listing downgrading from Level One or Level Two to Level Three shall be effected not later than on the trading day following that when the respective decision was made by the Exchange;

22.7.5. occurrence of an issuer's technical default. The decision to downgrade the listing level of a bond issue in relation to which a technical default occurred, from Level One or Level Two to Level Three shall be made by the Exchange with due regard to the materiality and systemic nature of the violation, and subject to the provisions of Clause 4.7 Article 4 of these Rules;

22.7.6. the Bank of Russia revokes (cancels) the banking license of the issuer which is a lending organisation.

22.8. If a procedure applicable in a bankruptcy case (other than the receivership proceedings) is initiated in relation to Entity, the listing level downgrading from Level One or Level Two to Level Three shall be effected not later than on the trading day following that when the respective decision was made by the Exchange.

22.9. If grounds for the exclusion of securities from Level One or Level Two come into existence, the Exchange may make the decision to downgrade the listing level in the manner referred to in Article 16 of these Rules, without first receiving an appropriate application from the Entity (except as otherwise provided for in these Rules).

Such a decision shall be made provided that the security and the Entity meet the requirements applicable in connection with the inclusion in Level Two or Level Three, or else provided that such securities are to be delisted.

22.10. The Exchange shall, with the exception of the circumstances referred to in Sub-Clauses 22.2.1 and 22.2.4, and 22.3 – 22.6, 22.7.1 – 22.7.4 of this Article, Sub-Clause 4, Clause 2.1.12 of Annex 2 to the Rules, make the decision regarding the exclusion of a security from Level One or Level Two within 5 trading days from that when it became or should have become aware of the occurrence of the respective grounds for the exclusion of securities.

The securities shall be excluded from Level One or Level Two within 7 trading days from that when the respective decision is made by the Exchange, with the exception of the circumstances referred to in Clauses 22.3 – 22.8 of this Article.

22.11. The Exchange shall disclose information on the retention of securities on Level One or Level Two via the website of the Exchange not later than on the trading day following that when the respective decision was made.

Article 23. Suspension and Resumption of Trading in Securities

23.1. The decision to suspend trading in securities for any of the causes referred to in these Rules shall be made by the Exchange on the basis of an expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

In connection with the issuance of such expert opinion, the Listing Department shall consider any official documents and notifications received by the Exchange, information disclosed or provided by the Entity, as well as any announcements posted on the websites of competent (regulatory) government authorities.

23.2. The Exchange may suspend trading in securities if any grounds for the delisting of securities as referred to in Clauses 21.2 or 21.3 Article 21 of these Rules are identified (subject to specific rules governing individual situations), as well as in the following circumstances (as applicable to the respective kind/type/category of security and/or Entity):

23.2.1. a directive (notice, or request) suspending trading (in particular, in respect of an individual security) is received from appropriate competent (regulatory) government authority;

23.2.2. a court order, or a bailiff's enforcement warrant in respect of a court order or another enforcement document (containing the decision to take enforcement actions or other causes of action that could impact the process of trading in securities or requiring suspension of trading);

23.2.3. the Entity fails to comply with any requirements to submit documents as indicated in Annex 1 to these Rules or as requested by the Exchange, in particular, upon any change in (extension of) any information contained therein, or if such documents contain any false information;

23.2.4. the Exchange receives a recommendation from the Expert Council on Listing to suspend trading in the securities;

23.2.5. a notice from the issuer, being a special-purpose entity or a mortgage agent issuer, on complete redemption of par value of the bonds

23.2.6. occurrence of other material events capable of impacting the trading in the securities at the Exchange.

23.3. The following specific rules shall apply as the Exchange considers suspension of trading in securities:

23.3.1. If a notice of suspension (blocking) of trades in the respective securities of the issuer is received from the Settlement Depository, the Exchange shall suspend trading in such listed securities not later than by the start of trading on the day when the event referred to in such notice occurs. If the Exchange received such a notice of the day of suspension (blocking) of trades in the respective securities of the issuer, the Exchange shall suspend trading in the respective securities on the day when it received such notice.

23.3.2. If the issuer publishes an announcement of state registration of the issue (the decision to effect the issue)/(additional issue) of securities whereby the issuer's securities admitted to on-exchange trading are subject to conversion (other than in connection with the issuer's reorganisation), the Exchange shall suspend trading in such listed securities not later than by the start of trading on the conversion date.

23.3.3. The Exchange shall suspend placement of Exchange-registered bonds if it becomes aware of any violations referred to in 21.3.2, 21.3.10 and 21.3.11 of Article 21 of these Rules, on the day when the respective violation is found to exist, and until such violation is remedied within the securities placement period.

23.3.4. In addition to the grounds referred to in Clause 2 of this Article, the Exchange shall make the decision to suspend trading in any listed Russian Depositary Receipts, in the following circumstances:

- in the case of splitting of such Russian Depositary Receipts, at least 3 working days before the proposed splitting date;
- in the case of splitting of consolidation of the underlying securities, at least 3 working days before the proposed date of such consolidation or splitting of the underlying securities, respectively;
- in the case of a change in the scope of and/or the procedure for exercising any rights attaching to the underlying securities in accordance with a foreign law, at least 3 working days before the proposed date of such change in the scope of and/or the procedure for exercising any rights attaching to the underlying securities.

23.3.5. If grounds arise for the termination of a unit investment fund, the Exchange shall, not later than on the trading day following that when the Exchange became or should have become aware of such grounds, decide to suspend trading in the investment units, and subsequently delist them in the events and in the manner described in Article 21 of these Rules.

23.3.6. If the Entity or Prescribed Legal Entity is adjudicated bankrupt, the Exchange shall, in cases described in Article 21 of these Rules, within 3 working days from that when it became or should have become aware of such adjudication of bankruptcy in relation to the Entity, decide to suspend trading in its securities, and subsequently delist them in the manner described in Article 21 of these Rules.

23.4. Within 1 trading day following that when the decision to suspend trading is made by the Exchange, the Exchange shall:

- disclose the information on the decision made via the website of the Exchange.

If the Exchange makes the decision to suspend trading upon the request of a government authority or in accordance with the requirements of the Bank of Russia regulations, then, if it is impossible to disclose information on such suspension of trading by the prescribed deadline, the Exchange shall disclose such information not later than 1 hour after such suspension of trading.

In the circumstances referred to in the Bank of Russia regulations the Exchange shall notify the Bank of Russia and the Clearing House of the suspension of trading in securities as and when prescribed by such regulations.

Otherwise, the Exchange shall notify the Bank of Russia and the Clearing House of such suspension of trading in securities by disclosing the information on the decision to suspend trading via the website of the Exchange within the time frames indicated in this Clause.

23.5. The Exchange may make the decision to resume trading in a security on the basis of an expert opinion issued by the Listing Department.

In connection with the issuance of such expert opinion, the Listing Department shall take into account any official documents and notifications received by the Exchange, any information disclosed or provided by the Entity, as well as announcements posted on the websites of competent (regulatory) government authorities evidencing that there do not exist any circumstances that would prevent the resumption of trading and/or confirming the elimination of the circumstances that constituted grounds for the suspension of trading in the security, as well as in other cases referred to in these Rules.

If trading in a security is suspended in connection with any violations identified, the decision to resume trading shall be made if the violations that constituted grounds for such suspension of trading are remedied.

23.6. If trading in the Russian Depositary Receipts is suspended for causes referred to in Clause 3.4 of this article, trading shall be resumed after the registered amendments to the decision to issue Russian Depositary Receipts, induced by such causes, shall have taken effect.

23.7. At least 15 minutes before the resumption of trading, the Exchange shall:

- disclose the information on the resumption of trading via the website of the Exchange.

In the circumstances referred to in the Bank of Russia regulations the Exchange shall notify the Bank of Russia and the Clearing House of the resumption of trading in securities as and when prescribed by such regulations.

Otherwise, the Exchange shall notify the Bank of Russia and the Clearing House of such resumption of trading in securities by disclosing the information on the decision to resume trading via the website of the Exchange within the time frames indicated in this Clause.

23.8. The Exchange may change the time period of the suspension of trading as prescribed in this Article, provided that new grounds for such suspension arose in relation to those same securities which provide for a different period of such suspension.

23.9. The Exchange may make the decision to discontinue trading in securities if the securities trading suspension period expires and, among other things, no cause and/or ability to resume trading exists.

23.10. If the Decision to Issue Securities and the Securities Prospectus provide for the buyout of the bonds by the issuer through trades made in the Exchange Trading System, and the information on the terms and conditions of such bonds buyout was provided to the Exchange by the issuer, the buyout agent, the bondholder or the Settlement Depository, the Exchange shall consider whether it will be possible to resume trading in the security during a certain period, with the purpose of providing the issuer with the opportunity to perform its obligation to buy out bonds (offer-based buyout) in the trading modes intended for such buyout in accordance with the Trading Rules on Equity & Bond Market of the Moscow Exchange and shall make the decision to resume (or not to resume) trading.

In this event, the resumption of trading in the security shall only be possible if the securities law (the investment fund law, or the mortgage-backed securities law) of the Russian Federation or the Bank of Russia regulations do not contain any requirement to suspend trading, or there does not exist any Bank of Russia directive ordering suspension of trading in such security.

Within three working days after the information on the date, terms and conditions of the buyout of such bonds was found by the Exchange or provided to the Exchange by the issuer, the buyout agent, the bondholder or the Settlement Depository, the Exchange shall notify the Bank of Russia accordingly.

SECTION 6. DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

Article 24. Procedure for Settlement of Disputes and Disagreements

24.1. All civil disputes and disagreements arising in connection with the Moscow Exchange activities in accordance with these Rules, as well as with the performance of any duties arising from these Rules or from, or in connection with, any contracts made with the Moscow Exchange, shall be reviewed and settled in the Arbitration Centre at the Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs (RSPP) (hereinafter, the “Arbitration Panel”) subject to the Arbitration Procedures then in effect.

2.18. Schedule of requirements to the issuer's corporate governance which are to be met for shares to be included in Level One

1. For the issuer's shares to be included in Level One, such issuer shall meet the following requirements*:

1) The board of directors (supervisory board) elected by the issuer (hereinafter, the board of directors) shall include, among others, persons each of which shall be sufficiently independent for formulating a position of their own and shall be capable of making objective judgment free from the influence of the issuer's executive bodies, certain groups of shareholders, or other stakeholders, and shall possess a sufficient degree of professionalism and experience (hereinafter, an independent director). The number of independent directors shall be not less than one fifth of all board of directors' members and shall not be less than three.

A member of the board of directors, as a rule, cannot be an independent director if he:

- a) is affiliated with the issuer;
- b) is affiliated with a material shareholder of the issuer;
- c) is affiliated with a material counterparty of the issuer;
- d) is affiliated with a competitor of the issuer;
- d) is affiliated with the government (the Russian Federation, or a constituent entity of the Russian Federation) or a municipality.

The independence of the members of the board of directors shall be determined in accordance with the Board of Directors (Supervisory Board) Member Independence Criteria set out in Annex 4 of these Rules (hereinafter, the Independence Criteria).

2) The issuer's board of directors shall establish an audit committee, headed by an independent director, the core functions of which shall, among other things, include:

- a) control of the assurance of completeness, accuracy and reliability of the issuer's financial statements;
- b) control of the reliability and efficiency of the risk management and internal control system;
- c) assurance of independence and objectiveness of the internal and external audit functions;

The audit committee shall consist of independent directors or, where this is not possible for objective reasons, independent directors shall constitute the majority of the committee members, while other committee members may be members of the board of directors other than the chief executive officer and/or the members of the collegiate executive body of the issuer.

3) The issuer's board of directors shall establish a compensation committee, the core functions of which shall, among other things, include:

- a) development and periodic revision of the issuer's policy of remuneration of the members of the board of directors, the sole executive body and members of the issuer's collegiate executive body, oversight of such policy implementation and delivery;
- b) preliminary assessment of the performance of the issuer's executive bodies based on the year results in accordance with the issuer's compensation policy;
- c) development of the conditions of early termination of employment contracts with the sole executive body and the members of the issuer's collegiate executive body, including all tangible liabilities of the issuer and the conditions of their provisions;
- d) development of recommendations for the board of directors as regards determination of the amount of compensation and the principles underlying provision of incentives to the issuer's corporate secretary (head of the structural unit that performs the functions of the corporate secretary);

The compensation committee shall consist of independent directors or, where this is not possible for objective reasons, independent directors shall constitute the majority of the committee members, while other committee members may be members of the board of directors other than the chief executive officer and/or the members of the collegiate executive body of the issuer.

4) The issuer's board of directors shall establish a nomination (HR, appointments) committee (hereinafter, the nomination committee) , the core functions of which shall, among other things, include:

- a) annual detailed formal self-assessment or external performance assessment of the board of directors and individual board members, as well as board committees, determination of priority areas for the reinforcement of the board of directors' capability;

- b) interaction with shareholders, not to be limited to the major shareholders, with the purpose of the development of recommendations for the shareholders in relation to the voting on the election of nominees to the board of directors of the issuer;
- c) planning of staff appointments, in particular, taking into account business continuity issues, of members of the collegiate executive body and of the chief executive officer, development of recommendations for the board of directors as regards nominees to the position of the corporate secretary (head of the structural unit that acts as the corporate secretary), members of the entity executive bodies and other key executives;

The majority of the nomination committee members shall be independent directors, while other committee members may be members of the board of directors, other than the chief executive officer and/or members of the issuer's collegiate executive body.

- 5) The existence of the issuer's corporate secretary or the special structural unit(s) performing the functions of the corporate secretary, with the following functions among other things:
- a) support of the issuer's interaction with the regulatory authorities, trading authorities, the registrar, other professional securities market participants, within the corporate secretary's terms of reference;
 - b) prompt notification of the board of directors of any findings of violation of the law or the entity internal documents insofar as compliance with such documents is part of the entity corporate secretary's functions.

The corporate secretary (or the special structural unit performing the functions of the corporate secretary) may perform other functions as set out in the regulations of the corporate secretary (or of the special structural unit performing the functions of the corporate secretary).

The corporate secretary (the head of the structural unit performing the functions of the corporate secretary) shall report to the issuer board of directors, and shall be appointed to, and removed from, his office by the issuer's chief executive officer, subject to the consent of, or coordination with, the board of directors.

- 6) The existence of the regulations of the issuer's corporate secretary (special structural unit(s) performing the functions of the corporate secretary) developed with reference to the provisions of the Code of Corporate Governance recommended by the Bank of Russia. In this regard, if such regulations do not conform to the Code of Corporate Governance recommended by the Bank of Russia, explanations of the reasons for such non-conformance shall be disclosed.

- 7) The existence of a distinct internal document regulating the issuer's dividend policy, approved by the issuer board of directors.

- 8) The existence of a separate structural unit(s) of the issuer performing internal audit, or an arrangement where internal audit is conducted by an external independent organisation engaged by the issuer. For the purposes hereof, the internal audit functions shall include, among other things:
- a) assessment of the internal control system efficiency;
 - b) assessment of the risk management system efficiency (for lending organisations, verification of the efficiency of the banking risk assessment methodology and banking risk management procedures established by the lending organisation internal documents (methodologies, programs, rules, regulations and procedures governing the performance of banking transactions and deals, banking risk management), and of the completeness of the application of the above-mentioned documents, review of the risk management function performance);
 - c) assessment of corporate governance matters (if a corporate governance committee does not exist).

The head of the issuer's structural unit conducting internal audit (the issuer's official responsible for internal audit to whom the head of such structural unit directly reports) shall be appointed to, and removed from, his respective office by the issuer's chief executive officer pursuant to the decision of the issuer's board of directors, and shall functionally report to the issuer's board of directors, and administratively, to the chief executive officer. For the purposes hereof, the above-mentioned persons shall not manage any of the issuer's functional areas of activity that require making of management decisions in relation to the audit targets.

9) The existence of the issuer's policy in the area of internal audit (the internal audit regulations) approved by the issuer's board of directors which sets out the goals, objectives and terms of reference of the structural unit(s) performing the internal audit functions, and where an external independent entity is engaged to perform internal audit, also the procedure for the selection of, and contracting with, such entity.

The committees referred to in par. 1 of Clause 2.18 of Annex 2 should be formed by the Board of Directors no later than 30 days from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders at which the Board of Directors was elected (applicable for maintenance purposes).

2. The Exchange may make the decision to include in (upgrade the listing level to) Level One, or to refrain from the decision to exclude from Level One, any shares, if the issuer finds a member of (nominee to) the board of directors independent, provided that all of the following conditions are met:

1) The issuer's board of directors (on a case-by-case basis under exceptional circumstances) acknowledged independence of a member of (or nominee to) the board of directors, notwithstanding that it qualifies under the formal criteria of relationship to the issuer, a material shareholder of the issuer, a material counterparty and/or competitor of the issuer, the state (the Russian Federation, a constituent entity of the Russian Federation) and/or a municipality, as set out in the Board of Directors (Supervisory Board) Member Independence Criteria, only if such relationship does not affect the respective person's ability to make independent, objective and bona-fide judgment (hereinafter, a decision acknowledging independence of the board of directors' member).

2) The issuer provided a decision of the board of directors that contains a well-reasoned justification of the acknowledgement of independence of a member of (nominee to) the board of directors).

3) The decision acknowledging the independence of a member of the board of directors is disclosed on the website of the issuer in the board of directors' section (as part of information of the members of the board of directors)²⁹, with the indication to:

- the quorum at the issuer's board of directors meeting and the results of vote on such issue, with an indication of full name and the voting option (FOR, AGAINST, ABSTAINED) chosen, in relation to each member of the board of directors (supervisory board) that voted on the issue of acknowledging independence of the member of (nominee to) the board of directors or abstained from vote;
- the content of the decision, with a well-reasoned justification of the acknowledgement of independence of the member of (nominee to) the board of directors);
- the date of the issuer's board of directors meeting where the respective decision was made;
- the issue date and number of the minutes of issuer's board of directors meeting where the respective decision was made.

4) Upon the re-election of the issuer's board of directors, the procedure for acknowledging independence of a board of directors' member that doesn't meet the Independence Criteria shall be repeated.

If new affiliation criteria are identified, or new relevant circumstances are found in respect of identified affiliation criteria, which have not been covered by the resolution of acknowledging independence of the board of directors' member, the procedure for acknowledging independence of the board of directors' member (nominees to the board of directors) that doesn't meet the Independence Criteria shall be repeated, provided that above-mentioned criteria and (or) circumstances do not affect his/her ability to make independent, objective and bona fide judgements.

The Exchange may decide to deny inclusion in (upgrade in the listing level to) Level One, or decide to exclude from Level One, any shares referred to in this Clause, if the conditions set out in this Clause are not met.

For the purposes of securities listing, the Exchange shall have the right not to treat as independent those members of the board of directors (nominees to the board of directors) for whom the decisions acknowledging their independence was made.

* In connection with the inclusion of a foreign issuer's shares in Level One, the requirements of this Clause shall apply insofar as they may relate to the foreign issuer considering the specific regulations provided in the proper law of such foreign issuer. In connection with the finding whether foreign issuers and securities of foreign issuers meet the requirements of this Clause, any legal concepts shall be interpreted in accordance with the Russian law.

 The functions of the nomination committee may be delegated to the compensation committee, the corporate governance committee or another committee of the board of directors.

2.18.1 Recommendations on the issuer's corporate governance

If the issuer acknowledges independence of a member of/a candidate to the board of directors in accordance with procedures set in Sub-Clause 2 Clause 2.18 hereof, the issuer is further recommended to ensure that such member of/candidate to the board of directors sign a declaration of an independent member of /candidate to the board of directors produced according to the form recommended by the Exchange (hereinafter referred to as the "Declaration").

The issuer is recommended to disclose signing the Declaration by a member of the board of directors on its website in the board of directors' section (as part of information of the members of the board of directors). It is also recommended that such information should be made available on the issuer's website until the date of the next annual general meeting of shareholders following the one at which the present board of directors of the issuer is elected.

If the board of directors is re-elected, and if the information stated in the Declaration changes, it is recommended that the member of the board of directors should sign the Declaration once again.

In connection with the finding whether foreign issuers and securities of foreign issuers meet the requirements of this Clause, any legal concepts shall be interpreted in accordance with the Russian law.

2.19.1 Recommendations on the issuer's corporate governance

If the issuer acknowledges independence of a member of/a candidate to the board of directors in accordance with procedures set in Sub-Clause 2 Clause 2.19 hereof, the issuer is further recommended to ensure that such member of/candidate to the board of directors sign a declaration of an independent member of /candidate to the board of directors produced according to the form recommended by the Exchange (hereinafter referred to as the "Declaration").

The issuer is recommended to disclose signing the Declaration by a member of the board of directors on its website in the board of directors' section (as part of information of the members of the board of directors). It is also recommended that such information should be made available on the issuer's website until the date of the next annual general meeting of shareholders following the one at which the present board of directors of the issuer is elected.

If the board of directors is re-elected, and if the information stated in the Declaration changes, it is recommended that the member of the board of directors should sign the Declaration once again.

2.20. Schedule of requirements to the issuer's corporate governance which are to be met for bonds to be included in Level One

For the issuer's bonds to be included in Level One, such issuer shall meet the following requirements:

- 1) The issuer that is a business entity shall have an elected board of directors.
- 2) The board of directors or a competent governance body of the issuer that is not a business entity shall approve the internal audit policy (the internal audit regulations). Such policy (regulations) set out the goals, objectives and terms of reference of the structural unit(s) (external independent entity) performing the internal audit functions, and where an external independent entity is engaged to perform internal audit, also the procedure for the selection of, and contracting with, such entity.
- 3) The existence of a separate structural unit(s) of the issuer performing internal audit functions, or an arrangement where internal audit is conducted by an external independent organisation engaged by the issuer. For the purposes hereof, the internal audit functions shall include, among other things:
 - a) assessment of the internal control system efficiency;
 - b) assessment of the risk management system efficiency (for lending organisations, verification of the efficiency of the banking risk assessment methodology and banking risk management procedures established by the lending organisation internal documents (methodologies, programs, rules, regulations and procedures governing the performance of banking transactions and deals, banking risk management), and verification of the completeness of the application of the above-mentioned documents, review of the risk management function performance);
 - c) assessment of corporate governance matters (if a corporate governance committee does not exist).

The head of the issuer's structural unit engaged in internal audit (the issuer's official responsible for internal audit to whom the head of such structural unit directly reports) shall be appointed to, and removed from, his respective office by the issuer's chief executive officer pursuant to the decision of the issuer's board of directors, and shall functionally report to the issuer's board of directors, and administratively, to the chief executive officer. For the purposes hereof, the above-mentioned persons shall not manage any of the issuer's functional areas of activity that require making of management decisions in relation to the audit targets.

* When bonds of a foreign issuer are admitted to Level One, the requirements set forth in this Article shall apply to the extent they are applicable to the foreign issuer, taking into account the specifics as per personal law of the foreign issuer. When assessing compliance by foreign issuers and their securities with the requirements set forth in this Article, legal concepts shall be interpreted under Russian law.

2.21. Requirements to free-floated shares of an issuer

1. Requirements to the number of the issuer's free-floated shares and (or) their total market value:

1.1. In connection with inclusion in Level One:

1.1.1. The total market value of the issuer's free-floated shares shall be:

- not less than RUB 3 billion in relation to ordinary shares; and
- not less than RUB 1 billion in relation to preferred shares.

1.1.2. The number of the issuer's free-floated shares (FFs) shall be equal:

2.16.1.1. at least 10% of all issued ordinary shares or of total preferred shares issued (preferred shares of a given type) accordingly, for issuers with the market capitalisation of > RUB 60 billion;

2.16.1.2. at least FF value of all issued ordinary shares or of total preferred shares issued (preferred shares of a given type) accordingly, for issuers with the market capitalisation of ≤ RUB 60 billion;

FF shall be calculated according to the following formulae:

$$FF = (0.25789 - 0.00263 \times Cap) \times 100\%,$$

where:

FF – issuer's free-floated shares of a certain category (type);

Cap – issuer's market capitalisation (in RUB billion).

1.2. In connection with inclusion (changing the listing level) in Level Two (except for the Growth Sector):

1.2.1. In case of including the shares in Level Two or transferring the shares from Level Three to Level Two:

1) The total market value of the issuer's free-floated shares shall be:

- not less than RUB 2 billion in relation to ordinary shares; and
- not less than RUB 1 billion in relation to preferred shares.

2) The free float (FFs) of the issuer must be at least 10% of all issued ordinary shares (for foreign issuers, shares of the given type), or of total preferred shares issued (preferred shares of a given type) accordingly.

1.2.2. In case of transferring the shares from Level One to Level Two, the number of the issuer's free-floated shares shall be:

- at least 4% of the total number of issued ordinary shares (for foreign issuers, shares of a certain type) or the total number of issued preferred shares (preferred shares of a certain type), respectively.

1.2.3. From the effective date of this revised version of the Listing Rules until 30 June 2027 (inclusive), shares may be included in the Level Two List without meeting the free float shares (FFs) requirements, provided it is expected that the following condition will be met by the end of the planned placement and/or sale of shares, completed no later than 30 June 2027 (inclusive)³¹:

1) The total market value of issuer's shares on free float must be:

- RUB 2 billion a minimum for ordinary shares
- RUB 1 billion a minimum for preferred shares

2) The free float shares (FFs) of the issuer must constitute not less than 1% of the total issued ordinary shares (for foreign issuers – shares of the given type) or the total issued preferred shares (preferred shares of a specific type), as appropriate.

³¹This applies subject to Article 10 (10.4) of these Rules.

2. The number of free-floated shares (FFs) shall be determined using the methodology approved by the Exchange and disclosed via the Exchange website.
3. The total market value of ordinary shares shall be calculated as the product of the price of ordinary shares by the quantity of ordinary shares issued (for foreign issuers, shares of the given type); the total market value of preferred shares shall be calculated as the product of the price of preferred shares by the quantity of issued preferred shares of the given type.
4. The issuer's market capitalisation shall be calculated as the sum total of the product of the price of ordinary shares by the quantity of ordinary shares issued and the product of the price of preferred shares by the quantity of preferred shares issued.
5. The price per share shall be determined as the market price of the security calculated in the manner set out in the Bank of Russia regulations.
6. Where foreign depositary receipts underlying shares are included in Level One or Level Two, the price of the shares underlying such depositary receipts may be determined with reference to the price in relation to the foreign depositary receipts representing such shares.

At the same time, the price of such foreign depositary receipts shall be determined with reference to the closing price of such securities prevailing at any foreign stock exchange (chosen by the Exchange).

7. If the price of share or a foreign depositary receipt cannot be determined in the manner described in this Clause, such price shall be determined in accordance with the methodology prescribed by the Exchange and disclosed via the Exchange website.

3.	Period of existence of the issuer or the legal entity through the reorganisation of which the issuer was established	At least 3 years	Not applicable

1. When admitting securities to the Growth Sector, the maximum revenue threshold requirement does not apply to securities of an issuer listed in the Unified Register of SMEs or the Register of Small Technology Companies.

Verification of compliance with the set maximum revenue threshold for maintenance takes place annually, after the third quarter's close.

In case of maintaining securities, the revenue threshold requirement does not apply to issuers registered on the date of verification in the Unified Register of SMEs or the Register of Small Technology Companies.

Revenues/income shall be determined on the basis of consolidated financial statements. If such statements are not prepared, then on the basis of standalone financial statements. If consolidated (standalone) financial statements do not exist, revenues/income shall be determined on the basis of Russian Accounting Standards-based accounting (financial) statements.

In accordance with the use of either the term "revenue" or "income" within financial statements, the Exchange shall apply the stipulated requirement to the appropriate reporting indicator for both admission to and maintenance on the list.

2. Requirements shall apply to list floating securities in the Level Two.

The shares may be included in Level Two according to procedures prescribed in Clause 4 Article 10 thereof, without applying FFs requirements as described in item 3 in the Table above, provided that such requirements are expected to be met after the placement and (or) sale of securities.

If shares are admitted to Level Two List under conditions of Sub-clause 1.1 of Clause 3.4.2 of this Annex, non-compliance with the requirements for free float shares (FFs) as stipulated in Sub-clause 1.2 of Clause 3.4.2 of this Annex shall be grounds for their exclusion from the Growth Sector and from the Level Two List. However, shares are not excluded from the Level Two List in the case where the total market value of shares in free float satisfies the requirements under Clause 2.21 (1.2) of Annex 2, which are applied for the inclusion of shares in the Level Two List.

3.4.2. In relation to free-floated shares of the issuer:

1. Requirements to the number of the issuer's free-floated shares and/or their aggregate market value included or to be included in Level Two List and the Growth Sector:

1.1. In connection with the inclusion:

1.1.1. The aggregate market value of free-floated shares of the issuer shall be

Notes:

1. When admitting securities to the Growth Sector, the maximum revenue threshold requirements do not apply to securities of an issuer listed in the Unified Register of SMEs or the Register of Small Technology Companies.

³⁵ Provided that the bond issue is included in the Growth Sector and all the bonds of the bond issue are not redeemed.

³⁶ in relation to issues listed in the Growth Sector.

Verification of compliance with the set maximum revenue threshold for maintenance takes place annually, after the third quarter's close.

In case of maintaining securities, the revenue threshold requirement does not apply to issuers registered on the date of verification in the Unified Register of SMEs or the Register of Small Technology Companies.

Revenues/income shall be determined on the basis of Russian Accounting Standards-based accounting (financial) statements.

If the Issuers' consolidated financial statements are disclosed on the website of one of news agencies, the issuer's revenue/income is determined on the basis of such statements.

In accordance with the use of either the term "revenue" or "income" within financial statements, the Exchange shall apply the stipulated requirement to the appropriate reporting indicator for both admission to and maintenance on the list.

2. The credit rating requirement shall not be applied to other sureties (guarantors) when one of the guarantors (sureties) has a credit rating and the amount of collateral provided by such guarantor (surety) is not less than the face value of all bonds of the included issue and the total coupon yield on such bonds, and shall not apply when there is a guarantee from the SME corporation of at least the face value of all bonds of the included issue and the total coupon yield on such bonds.

3. The requirement that the issuer (bond issue) or the surety (guarantor) should have a credit rating assigned by one of the rating agencies not below the level set by the Exchange or the requirement on SME Bank's purchasing bonds shall not be a reason for exclusion of bonds from the Growth Sector before 07/12/2020.

Board of Directors (Supervisory Board) Independence Criteria

This Annex sets out the independence criteria for the members of the issuer's board of directors (supervisory board) (hereinafter, the board of directors), including the affiliation criteria and their materiality.

1. A material shareholder of the issuer shall be understood as a person entitled, directly or indirectly (via persons controlled by it), on its own or jointly with other persons bound to it under a fiduciary property management agreement and/or simple partnership agreement and/or agency agreement and/or shareholder agreement and/or another agreement regulating the exercise of the rights certified by the issuer's shares (participatory interests), to dispose of 5 or more percent of the votes attaching to the voting shares representing the issuer's charter capital.

A group of entities whereof the issuer's material shareholder is part shall be understood as the legal entities controlled by the issuer's material shareholder and/or legal entities controlled by the persons that also controls the material shareholder (including such material shareholder and/or the person controlling the material shareholder). The concept of a group of entities whereof the issuer's material shareholder is part shall not apply where the Russian Federation, a constituent entity of the Russian Federation, or a municipality is the material shareholder.

2. A material counterparty of the issuer shall be understood as a person that is the party to agreement(s) with the issuer, whereby the amount of obligations is 2 or more percent of the book value of the issuer's or such person's consolidated assets as of the reporting date preceding the assessment of the counterparty materiality, or 2 or more percent of the issuer's or such person's consolidated revenues (income) for the complete calendar year preceding the assessment of the counterparty materiality. If the counterparty's consolidated financial statements are not available, the accounting statements of such counterparty may be used for comparison purposes.

3. The affiliates of an individual shall be understood as: the spouse, parents, children, adopting parents, adopted, full and half brothers and sisters, grandparents and any other person living together and sharing the household with such individual.

4. A person shall be regarded as an affiliate of the issuer, among other things, if it and/or its affiliates:

1) are or for the last 3 years were members of the executive bodies or employees of the issuer, an entity controlled by the issuer and/or the Management Company of the issuer;

2) are members of the board of directors of the legal entity that controls the issuer, or of an entity controlled by, or controlling, such legal entity;

3) during any of the last 3 years received remuneration and/or other tangible benefits from the issuer and/or other entities controlled thereby in amounts exceeding one half of the basic (fixed) annual fee of a member of the issuer's board of directors*;

4) are the legal owners or beneficiaries of the issuer's shares that amount to more than 1 percent of the issuer's charter capital or all of the issuer's voting shares, or the market value of which is more than 20 times higher than the annual fixed fee of a member of the issuer's board of directors;

5) are members of executive bodies and/or employees of a legal entity whose remuneration is determined (considered) by the compensation committee of such legal entity board of directors, if any member of the executive bodies and/or employee of the issuer is a member of the compensation committee of such legal entity;

6) provide consulting services to the person that controls the issuer or to the legal entities controlled by the issuer, or are members of the governance body and/or the executive bodies of the entities that provide such services to the issuer or the above-mentioned legal entities, or employees of such entities directly engaged in the provision of such services;

7) provide or during the last 3 years provided, to the issuer or legal entities controlled thereby, services in the areas of appraisals, tax advice, auditing or accounting services, or during the last three years were members of the governance body and/or executive bodies of the entities that provided such services to the above-mentioned legal entities, or of the issuer's rating agency, or were the employees of such entities or such rating agency directly engaged in the provision of the respective services to the issuer.

Furthermore, a person shall be considered an affiliate of the issuer if it occupied the office of a member of the issuer's board of directors for more than 7 years. The calculation of the time served by the director on the issuer's board of directors shall take into account the time served by the director on the board of directors of the reorganised legal entity whom the issuer succeeded.

In this regard, for the purposes of ascertaining the independence of a nominee to (or an elected member of) the board of directors, a nominee to (or an elected member of) the board of directors that occupied the office of a board of directors' member from seven to twelve years, may be not considered an affiliate of the issuer, provided that a respective decision is made by the board of directors.

5. A person shall be regarded as an affiliate of the issuer's material shareholder, among other things, if it and/or its affiliates:

1) are employees and/or members of executive bodies of the issuer's material shareholder (or of a legal entity from the group of entities whereof the issuer's material shareholder is part);

2) during any of the last 3 years received remuneration and/or other tangible benefits from the issuer's material shareholder (or a legal entity from the group of entities whereof the issuer's material shareholder is part), in amounts exceeding one half of the basic (fixed) annual fee of a member of the issuer's board of directors.

3) are members of the boards of directors in more than two legal entities controlled by the issuer's material shareholder or the person controlling the issuer's material shareholder.

6. A person shall be regarded as an affiliate of the issuer's material counterparty or competitor, among other things, if it and/or its affiliates:

1) are employees and/or members of the governance body and/or executive bodies of the issuer's material counterparty or competitor, as well as legal entities controlling the issuer's material counterparty or competitor or any entities controlled thereby;

2) are the legal owners or the beneficiary of the shares (participatory interests) in a material counterparty or competitor of the issuer that amount to more than 5 percent of the charter capital or the total number of voting shares (participatory interests).

7. A person shall be deemed affiliated with the government or a municipality, among other things, if such person:

1) is or was for 1 year preceding election to the board of directors of the issuer, a government or a municipal employee, an official of government authorities, or an employee of the Bank of Russia;

2) represents the Russian Federation, a constituent entity of the Russian Federation or a municipality on the board of directors of the issuer in relation to which it was decided to use the special right to participate in governance (the "golden share");

3) has the duty to vote on any one or more matters reserved for the issuer's board of directors, in accordance with a directive issued by the Russian Federation, a constituent entity of the Russian Federation, or a municipality;

4) is or was for 1 year that preceded election to the issuer's board of directors, an employee or a member of the governance body of an entity controlled by the Russian Federation, a constituent entity of the Russian Federation or a municipality, an employee of a government or a municipal unitary enterprise or establishment (with the exception of employees of a state or municipal educational or academic organisation engaged in tuition or academic activities who are not appointed (approved) to the office of the chief executive officer or another office in such state or municipal educational or academic organisation by decision or with the consent of a government (or municipal) authority), if such person is nominated for election to the board of directors of the issuer in which the Russian Federation, a constituent entity of the Russian Federation or a municipality controls over 20 percent of the issuer's charter capital or voting shares.

* The actual income received from the issuer and/or the entities controlled thereby during any of the last 3 years shall be compared to the level of the basic (fixed) annual fee that accrues to independent directors at the time of assessing independence, in accordance with the remuneration policy applicable to the members of the issuer's board of directors. If a remuneration policy does not exist or is inaccessible, the basic (fixed) annual fee effectively approved for such directors at the most recent annual general shareholders' meeting shall be used as an estimate of the director's expected basic (fixed) fee. An analysis of tangible benefits shall not take into account and payments and/or compensations received by the above-mentioned persons by way of remuneration and/or compensation of expenses for their performance of the duties of a member of the board of directors (a member of committee) of the issuer and/or an entity controlled thereby, including those related to the insurance of their liability as members of the board of directors, as well as incomes and other payments received by the above-mentioned persons on the securities of the issuer and/or an entity controlled thereby.

 The individual that, by reason of its participation in the company, on the basis of a contract or otherwise, receives the economic benefits from owning the shares (participatory interests) in, and/or from disposing of the votes attaching to the shares (participatory interests) that make up the company charter capital, shall be considered the beneficiary of the company shares.

 An analysis of tangible benefits shall not take into account and payments and/or compensations received by the above-mentioned persons by way of remuneration and/or compensation of expenses for their performance of the duties of a member of the board of directors (a committee of the board of directors) of the material shareholder of the issuer (or a legal entity from the group of entities whereof the issuer's material shareholder is part), including those related to the insurance of their liability as members of the board of directors, as well as incomes and other payments received by the above-mentioned persons on the securities of the material shareholder of the issuer (or a legal entity from the group of entities whereof the issuer's material shareholder is part).

Rules regulating disclosure of information in connection with admission to on-exchange trading of issue-grade securities in respect of which securities prospectus was not registered (a notification of securities prospectus was submitted)

1. These Rules regulating disclosure of information in connection with admission to on-exchange trading of issue-grade securities in respect of which securities prospectus was not registered ((a notification of securities prospectus was submitted) were developed in accordance with Sub-Clauses 1.1.3, 1.2.5 and 1.3.2 Article 5 of the Rules and the securities law of the Russian Federation.

All terms and concepts used in the Information Disclosure Rules shall be used in the meanings ascribed to them in the securities law of the Russian Federation and the Rules:

Information Disclosure Provisions – Bank of Russia Provisions on the Disclosure of Information by Issuers of Securities.

Information Disclosure Rules – the present Rules regulating disclosure of information in connection with admission to on-exchange trading of issue-grade securities in respect of which securities prospectus was not registered (or filed).

The List of Requirements to Information Disclosure – the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure provided in the Annex.

Annex – the present Annex 7 to the Rules.

Webpage – an Internet page provided by one of news agencies accredited by the Bank of Russia to carry out actions to disclose information on securities and other financial instruments.

Standard Form – approved and published standard forms of the documents submitted to the Moscow Exchange in relation to the listing issues.

Securities – bonds in respect of which registration of a securities prospectus (or the filing of a securities prospectus with the Moscow Exchange) is not necessary for their public circulation, among them those intended for qualified investors.

The Information Disclosure Rules shall apply to the Securities issuers that in the manner prescribed in the Rules assumed the information disclosure obligation in accordance with the Information Disclosure Rules, as related to inclusion of the List of Securities Admitted to Trading in Level Three.

These Information Disclosure Rules shall not apply to the issuers of Russian Depositary Receipts, Exchange-registered Russian Depositary Receipts, and securities of foreign issuers.

2. The issuers of Securities that assumed the information disclosure obligation in accordance with the Information Disclosure Rules shall disclose information and documents in accordance with the requirements set out in the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure as to the form, content, scope, manner and time frames applied to issuers that meet the following conditions (belong to a certain category):

- 2.1. the issuer is a public joint-stock company under the obligation to disclose information in accordance with the requirements of the securities law of the Russian Federation;
- 2.2. the issuer's bonds are included in the List of Securities Admitted to Trading (further referred to as the List), and the issuer is under the obligation to disclose information in accordance with the requirements of the securities law of the Russian Federation;
- 2.3. the issuer has entered into an agreement/contract with a public joint-stock company, whereby the proceeds from the issuer's bonds placement are to be passed over to such a public joint-stock company (except for special-purpose vehicles);

2.4. other issuers not mentioned in Clauses 2.1–2.3.

3. The issuers mentioned in Clauses 2.1–2.4 shall disclose in the following manner:

1.1. The issuers mentioned in Clauses 2.1 and 2.2 additionally disclose an announcement on the results of the bond buy-back by the issuer from bond holders under the procedure and within the time frames prescribed by Clause 31 of the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure.

1.2. The issuers mentioned in Clauses 2.3 and 2.4 additionally disclose information in accordance with the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure

4. The Securities issuer's obligation to disclose the information provided for in the Information Disclosure Rules shall take effect from the date following the date of inclusion of Securities in the List.

Information on the Issuer's Securities, as required by the Disclosure Rules, shall be disclosed in respect of Securities which are in the List.

Upon the cessation of the obligation to disclose information in accordance with the securities law of the Russian Federation the issuers mentioned in Clauses 2.1 and 2.2 shall disclose documents and information on the Securities issue in accordance with the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure. At the same time, the issuer's obligation to disclose information in accordance with the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure arises since the date following the date of cessation of the obligation to disclose information in accordance with the securities law of the Russian Federation.

If the issuers indicated in Clauses 2.3 and 2.4 incur an obligation to disclose information in accordance with the requirements of the securities law of the Russian Federation, the obligation to disclose information in accordance with the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure is no longer imposed on the issuers, meanwhile such issuers continue to incur the obligation to disclose an announcement on the results of the issuer's buying the bonds from their owners under the procedure and within the time frames prescribed by Clause 31 of the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure.

5. Any information and documents to be disclosed in accordance with these Information Disclosure Rules shall be disclosed in the Russian language.

6. Issuers obliged to disclose information in accordance with the Disclosure Rules, when posting news in the newswire, must notify the Exchange of the contents of the news on the day of its publication. Notification to the Exchange must be made in accordance with paragraph 2 of Appendix A of the Rules.

7. The issuer shall provide any interested person with access to the information and documents liable to be disclosed in accordance with these Information Disclosure Rules within the time frames set by the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure.

8. If the issuer fails to disclose any information liable to be disclosed in accordance with the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure, the issuer shall explain, in the document or notice, the reason for which such information is not disclosed.

If certain provisions of the law state that the issuer has the right not to disclose information liable to be disclosed and/or limit the content and/or scope of such information the issuers have the right to non-disclosure based on the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure. The issuer must send a letter to the Exchange stating the list of non-disclosed information and the grounds for non-disclosure.

9. If the last day of the period by which in accordance with these Information Disclosure Rules the issuer is to disclose information falls on a weekend day or a holiday, the last day of such period shall be taken to mean the next following working day.

10. The obligation to disclose information provided for in the Information Disclosure Rules stops to be incurred since the date following the date of excluding the Securities from the List.

11. Except for the disclosure required under paragraph 32 of the List of Requirements to Information Disclosure, the disclosure under the Disclosure Rules shall not be made:

- during the period of temporary administration, as of the date the Central Bank of the Russian Federation appoints a temporary administrator for a financial institution Issuer;
- during the period of a liquidation committee (or liquidator), as of the date the Issuer's governing body resolves to liquidate the Issuer and appoints a liquidation committee (or liquidator);
- during the period of a court-ordered liquidation, as of the date a court order for liquidation becomes effective.
